WORDS OF LIFE

"There is...one God and Father of us all."

--Psalm 130:4

I. God, the cosmic presence, pervades the universe. When God came upon and contemplated the void (or the nothingness) of which we are told in the beginning of Genesis, his life's imprint, his life's impact and his life's breath it was which gave form and substance to our life and to our world. God's world reflects...and is...his life.

II. God is one. This is the ancient Hebrew lesson learned in Egyptian captivity from the teachings of Central Africa. There is one life-spirit, so the ancient Africans taught: there is one "life-force."

III. God is the Father of us all. We are "one family." A family is not "all alike." It is comprised of uniquely different children, with uniquely different outlook and assets. Yet it remains "one family," so it is with "family of man."

While we must take pride in our different "heritages," let us keep uppermost in our minds that we are one family with "one God and Father of us all."

The St. John Baptist Church, 1413 Lawry, will have a musical Sunday, December 31 at 8:00 p.m. Various groups and choirs will be featured. For more information call 642-2382. The St. John Baptist Church is pastored by Rev. Tom Jenkins.
