WORDS OF LIFE

"How lovely is thy dwelling place." — Psalm 84:1

God is everywhere. Hence every place has beauty! Conversely, ugliness is largely, if not wholly, seeming. It has been aptly said: "Beauty is in the eye of the beholder." What is it that you see? Your eyes are a mirror of your state of mind or frame of reference.

We should seek for loveliness. To find a trace of loveliness is to find a trace of God. To this the extent that we see beauty in all of life, to that same extent our lives may be said to be open to the presence and the perception of God.

Heaven is our home. A home is more than a destination at the end of a journey. A home is one's point of beginning, one's "abiding place." How "at home" are you at all times?

God wills that our lives be marked, at all times, by loveliness and joy in the presence of God and of His own. "How lovely is thy dwelling place...in all the universe...O God!"

perience and face tough times. And according to Rone, "This is what makes it all worthwhile."

The program consisted of live music by the prison groups "Chosen Few" and "Ball 'n Chains", along with the popular "Gloryland Gospel Singers" of Las Vegas. Inmates Tony Talley, Charles Rogers and Kelvin displayed their talents through poetry and speeches. The Rev. F. Hardy delivered the keynote address. The tribute was closed with a well planned fashion show by the Classy Models Fashion Revue.

Many inmates expressed that this event marked the first time anyone had ever visited them. They also said that they are looking forward to the next such event.

Special thanks goes to Warden George Deeds, Associate Warden Leon Smith, Lt. Lovell Gaines, Bob Andrews and everyone who made the trip and program possible. Community Citizen Concern is proving that the dream is real.

Without the public investments of an Urban Marshall Plan, we'll be well on our way to become a second-rate power in an age where national strength is measured by brain-power and skills, and not by bombs that can't be used without committing suicide.
