WORDS OF LIFE

BIBLICAL INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"Let my prayer be set forth as incense before thee;
The lifting of my hands as the evening sacrifice."

--Psalm 141:2

1. Evening shadows fall. We as Black people particularly are mindful that life's shadows appear before us daily. Shadows and nighttimes are inescapable. But nighttimes need never become nightmares.

We may use the night to ponder our pain and perplexity or we may use the "evening shadows" as an occasion for the renewal of our lives in God. The great religious spirits through the ages have used the shadows for "the lighting of a candle," for "returning to God--and rest."

2. Prayer brings peace. In God's bosom we find our truest peace. It is through prayer, which rises like a cloud of incense, that we reach out to the God whose spirit fills the universe, and whose heart and will are focused upon our needs.

3. Let's lift! Let's lift our hands to God. Let's lift our hearts to God. Let's lift up one another, and hold our dear ones "close to the heart of God."

Above all, perhaps let's lift up ourselves. Let's make of our lives a ceaseless cloud of incense; a perpetual sacrifice of thanksgiving--and praise.

Problems come and go. God alone remains.
