WORDS OF LIFE

BIBLICAL INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"Thou shalt also be a crown of beauty in the hand of Jehovah, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God." -- Isaiah 62:3

1. Are you a crown? The words of our text remind us that we shall each be a crown. That is what we are made for: to add glory to God, to be a bright star in the firmament, to brighten the heavens.

Most of us are individuals and as a race, do not tend to think of ourselves as the glorious and everglowing persons that we are. We are called to do no less than to enhance the royal diadem which crowns the Throne of Glory.

2. Brighten up! A crown often needs polishing. When is the last time your tarnished spots were consciously removed? Indeed, when was the last time you consciously recognized that the heavens stand in daily need of luster, of the light which you alone embody, and which you alone therefore can give?

Brighten up! God needs you to help set forth the divine glory before and within the world.

3. You are a glowing fire. You are like a glowing fire within God's hands, a fire which burns brightly for the world to see but which does not consume.

Our work as those who--like Jesus--know sorrows and are acquainted with grief, is to change life's every painful cross into a precious crown of peace and joy for all who suffer pain or from the stain of wrong.

God's glory is in us.
