WORDS OF LIFE

Prayer Poem

In 1910, Henry Sloane Coffin requested that the Rev. Walter Russell Bowie write a hymn reflecting our hope of the Kingdom of God, as for reality at least beginning here on earth. The hymn, "O Holy City, Seen of John," suggest to all that what God has for us in the future, He has for us even now. Thus, "all things may work together for good."

*O holy city, seen of John
Where Christ, the Lamb, doth reign,
Within whose four-square walls shall come
No night, nor need, nor pain,
And where the tears are wiped from eyes
That shall not weep again!*

*O shame to us who rest content
While lust and greed for gain
In street and shop and tenement
Wring gold from human pain,
And bitter lips in blind despair
Cry, "Christ hath died in vain!"*

*Give us, O God, the strength to build
The city that hath stood
Too long a dream, whose laws are love,
Whose ways are brotherhood,
And where the sun that shineth is God's grace for human good.*

The Church consoles a distraught world. Assist regularly in the healing work of your church.
