

Pointer Sisters Bring "Right Rhythm" to Caesars Palace

The Pointer Sisters -- Anita, June and Ruth -- return to headline the Caesars Palace Circus Maximus Showroom May 30 - June 4, performing in cocktail shows that also star actor/comedian Kevin Pollak.

The Pointers step into Caesars Palace spotlight with a new single, "Friends Advice," from their new album "Right Rhythm," just released. The trio, renowned for such million-sellers as "Jump" (For My Love), "I'm So Excited," "He's So Shy" and "Neutron Dance," announced in 1989 that they were bringing their hot sounds and sassy lyrics to the Motown label. "Right Rhythm" is their debut LP for that label.

The recording industry gave the Pointer Sisters their first big break. Singing everything from jazz scat to pop and R&B, the Pointers -- then a quartet with sister Bonnie -- hit gold with both of their first two albums, copping a Grammy for the country single "Fairy Tale."

The momentum has continued, buoyed by their popular cuts for motion pictures "Beverly Hills Cop," "Beverly Hills Cop II," "Action Jackson" and "Cad-dyshack II."

Reservations for the Pointer Sisters shows can be made by calling 800/445-4544 or 702/731-7333.

Suavena

Suavena Is On the Rise

Suavena is a five member group that was raised right here in the heart of the Las Vegas community.

The group members are Tony Stringfield, Rocky Blake, Norah Douglas, Krush Carroll and Parris Thompson. Their ages range from 17-21 years.

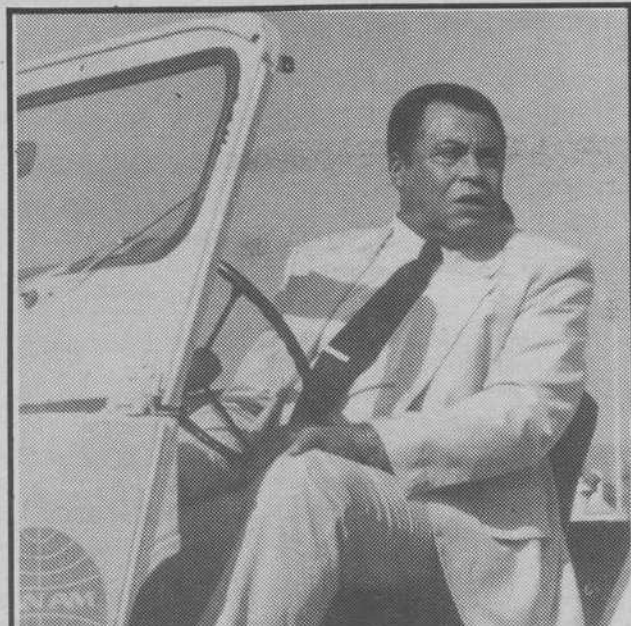

Striving to beat the odds of making it as R & B artists, the group moved one step closer last Sunday as they opened for Troop at UNLV's Artemus Ham Hall.

The Quintet started out by singing in local talent shows, and being a featured group on Starmania. They have performed for audiences of all ages, at Power 97 dances, Nellis Air Force Base and the Shark Club.

Suavena is currently working on an album which should be released sometime this summer.

The Las Vegas community truly has something to be proud of.

Suavena is on the Rise, so look out!
