

FESTIVAL

From Page 7

only son? But to Abraham God meant more to him than his flesh and blood son! What a noble man.

Prophet Abraham is loved and respected by all widespread religions around the world. He and his son Ismail built the first house of worship (the Kaaba) in Mecca, the native land of Prophet Muhammad, the last and final messenger of God. In dedicating the Holy House, the prophet Abraham asked God to make a KAABA a symbol of man's one "Universal Message," ONE GOD, ONE MAN, ONE UNIVERSE.

He envisioned a world where men rose above race, religion, sex or status in life.

A life free from human oppression and human wars. A life of true oneness of humanity, in which God represented the judge and the jury.

There will be a festival at the local Masjid Muhammad (the Muslim House of Worship), which will include food, of course, baked goods and other pastries, martial arts displays, song, dance, poetry and plays. All the public is invited to attend. Bring your favorite dish if you like or bring a picnic basket. A warm welcome is extended to all in the community to share in this cultural exchange.

Masjid Muhammad is located at 711 West Morgan Avenue off of "H" Street and Washington Avenue. It sits right behind the St.

We Salute You, Ed

By Lawrence Robinson

Some men grow in stature to such lofty heights in the eyes of their contemporaries, so much so, that if they were trees, one would have to marvel at the mighty and strong Oaks!

Others are simply blown blindly along through this life as mere tumble weeds. Yes, and then there is that Rare Man. A man that can be likened to the tall and majestic Redwood tree, that we all look up to with respect and awe-inspiring admiration!

My first cousin Edward Burney would most certainly fit that latter description ten times over, and then some (in our estimation).

Speaking of trees, the two imposingly tall, graceful Cypress Trees adorning Your front yard, stand out as everlasting sentinels, yes, living testimonials to a Man whose character (like the Father before Him, was molded by an undaunted Faith in His God, His Family, His Fellow Humankind and this Good Earth, that motivated Him to plant them as fledgling, foot-long sprouts twenty seven years ago!

Ed, the beautiful house You built was among the first ones on Your street and that makes You a Las Vegas Pioneer of sorts, doesn't it?

Your well earned reward was honored by our Good Lord on June 11, 1990 and Your presence in Heaven will be as welcomed there as it was to all of us here on this troubled Earth today.

Left to bask in the bright sunshine of Your worthwhile

James Catholic Church in a converted house, sitting about 50 feet back from the street. You will be gladly given directions.

For more information call Mujahid Ramadan or his wife Brenda at 647-2757 or call 648-5678.

Ed Burney

earthly endeavors, and to maintain in the Bountiful Burney Tradition, is your lovely and devoted wife Lenora for thirty-eight eventful, grand and fruitful years, your five proud grown children (two men, three women), and six beautiful grand children.

Ed, you served your country honorably during World War II, and received a discharge from the U.S. Navy to that effect on September 16, 1946, which listed you as a Stewart Mate First Class! Your successful post-war school years under the G.I. Bill in your home state (Louisiana) resulted in your moving to Las Vegas, Nevada in 1963 and you never looked back, or had any reason to do so.

As the years passed, You (among other things) were to become a welcomed Brother into the exclusive Prince Hall Brotherhood, a VFW Club member, and a very active and vital member of Your church, The New Bethel Baptist Church, for twenty-seven years!

You also enjoyed a highly successful career as a Hair Stylist here in Las Vegas, and ultimately established HAIR UNLIMITED with a younger brother (Booker Burney), and nephew Mack Smith, building it from the ground up. It was opened for business January 5, 1981.

Hair Unlimited Emporium has become an important com-

See BURNEY, Page 13

National Newspaper Publishers Association

Scholarship And Intern Program

What is it?
Who is it for?
What do I need to do?

Scholarship Value

The scholarship provides $2,000 per school year. Funds are paid through your school's Office of Financial Aid; $1,000 at the beginning of each semester to each accepted applicant.

How To Apply

Submit applications to the Chairman, Scholarship Committee, National Newspaper Publishers Association, Room 948, National Press Building, Washington, D.C. 20045

What To Submit

Applicants must submit:

- A transcript indicating: (a) a cumulative scholastic average of at least 2.5 and (b) full-time enrollment in junior- or senior-level classes.
- A letter or recommendation from the chairman of the journalism department or a professor.
- A personal statement of willingness to consider employment with a Black-owned newspaper upon graduation.

When To Apply

At least three months before the start of the school term.

About Internship

A summer Internship is offered between the junior and senior years with a National Newspaper Publishers Association member newspaper. Students earn $1,000 for eight weeks plus $500 for living expenses. An additional $500 may be provided for four extra weeks of intern work if desired and funded by the publisher.

The Program

This program assists African American college students in their junior or senior years. You must have the aptitude, interest and scholastic standing which indicate the potential for a successful journalistic career. Students in their first or second years and graduate students are also eligible.

Eligibility Requirements

1. A verified 2.5 cumulative average.
2. Enrollment as a full-time junior or senior in a recognized school offering courses in journalism.
3. Recommendation by the chairman of the journalism department or a professor.
4. Expression of a willingness to consider employment with a Black-owned newspaper upon graduation.

Intern Application

Apply no later than April 30 and include:

- A recommendation from the chairman of the journalism department or a professor.
- Indication of preference of newspaper or geographical area of a desired assignment.
- A resume of academic and newspaper work experience.

Send application to the Executive Director, National Newspaper Publishers Association, 948 National Press Building, Washington, D.C. 20045.

This program is not limited to students in the editorial writing sequence. Students studying advertising, marketing and management are also encouraged to apply.

Public Relations

You must provide a photograph of yourself and periodic letters indicating your academic activities as the basis for "hometown" news stories in our member newspapers.

Prospective College Freshmen

The National Newspaper Publishers Association, in cooperation with R.J. Reynolds Industries, makes a final selection of five high school students from among 10 finalists whose requests for four-year scholarship have been received, administered and recommended by the United Negro College Fund, Inc. High school applicants should send their requests to: United Negro College Fund, 500 E. 62nd St., New York, NY 10021.

Application for National Newspaper Publishers Association Scholarship

TO: Chairman
National Newspaper Publishers
Association Scholarship Committee
Room 948, National Press Building
Washington, D.C. 20245

I am an African American junior, senior (circle one) college student attending full-time classes at (name of school) with a curriculum which includes journalism courses.

My cumulative scholastic average is 2.5 or better.

A letter of recommendation is forthcoming.

I am willing to seek employment with a Black-owned newspaper upon graduation.

Signature: _____

Home Address: _____

School Address: _____

"Highest rated car we've ever tested...
Setting new standards in overall excellence!"
Consumer Reports Magazine
"It's not a car...
it's a high speed cloud with a leather interior!"
Car & Driver

The new Lexus LS 400 has received lofty praise from the automotive press. But why not form your own opinion? Come in to Fletcher Jones Lexus on Rancho Road near Sahara, right next door to our Mercedes-Benz dealership and test drive one today. We think you'll find that while the Lexus LS 400 elevates luxury car performance, its price is anything but sky-high.

FLETCHER JONES LEXUS
3130 S. Rancho in the Freeway AutoCenter - 364-2727
OPEN DURING CONSTRUCTION FOR BOTH SALES & SERVICE.
Monday thru Saturday 8am to 10pm