

AMERICA, HERE ARE THE MANDELAS! LISTEN TO THEM...

By Daniel Marolen
NNPA News Correspondent

This week and the next will be weeks of America's outburst of jubilant and unbridled rejoicing to welcome ANC's leader Nelson Mandela and his indomitable anti-apartheid activist wife Winnie Mandela. American, a nation built upon and devoted to the love of democracy, human rights, freedom and justice for all, will relish having in its midst this famous family which symbolizes the American Spirit and Dream.

The family of long-jailed and world's most famous political prisoner of modern times, Nelson Mandela, is one that America loves and idolizes...

Throngs and throngs of people--multitudes of seething humanity--are jamming the streets of the great metropolitan cities of New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Atlanta, Boston and Washington, D.C. Everywhere one looks, the air and scene are charged, tense, dense and filled with the full-throated and uproarious yells of men, women and children thirsting to catch a glimpse of Dr. Nelson Mandela and his pretty wife, Winnie. This couple constitutes the world's finest and noblest her-heroine family warring against the centuries-old South African freedom struggle. The world has never had the like of this most patriotic and selfless family...

Yes, the Mandelas are here. And the crowds of six great metropolitan centers are yelling with one voice,

"Free at last! Mandela is free at last! Amandhla!" And America unrolls its red carpet to a worthy family, the hero and heroine who sacrificed everything in their lives for the freedom of their fellowmen, caught up in the gruesome clutches of a hydra-headed monster called Apartheid... Now, they are honored like presidents, kings or heads of state in many lavish ways. An audience with President Bush in the White House! A conference with New York's

MaYOR David Dinkins! Addressing the General Assembly of the United Nations! A public appearance in New York's world-famous Yankee Stadium! Worshipping with Mrs. Coretta Scott King at her husband Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Shrine in Atlanta, Georgia! Addressing the Joint Houses of Congress in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C.! Plus, to crown it all, an academic honor for stout-hearted Mrs. Winnie Mandela, a woman all mankind loves and idolizes for having endured, and triumphed over the thorniest pinpricks of apartheid, fighting it, whilst keeping her husband's household alive for most of 28 years!, to say nothing of her own torture, police harassment, banning, house arrest and banishment!

America's honor for Nelson Mandela transcends human imagination. No family has suffered under apartheid like Nelson Mandela and his wife Winnie...

Now, why is Mandela here?

He is here to tell America the world's saddest tale of his country whose majority is held down in bondage by the world's most racist, brutal and oppressive regime -- the apartheid-obsessed Afrikaners -- who have disenfranchised 80% of the population, merely because they are black! Apartheid is unAmerican and undemocratic-- it must die! Apartheid is facism and nazim -- it must die! Apartheid is slavery and genocide -- it must die!

Mandela and his petite wife have brought America the dream of a new, free, non-racial, unitary and democratic South Africa, which will be a "land of all who live in it" as embodied in the FREEDON CHARTER OF SOUTH AFRICA, a masterpiece of a blueprint for change...

Now, America, heed Mandela's plea! It symbolizes the American spirit of freedom and justice for all, at its best. Heed Mandela, and go on to use all your power and resources to demolish apartheid, and free its downtrodden victims, long-trapped in its clutches and under its jackboot and extreme racial bigotry...
