Cooper May Leave Lakers for Italy

ROME — Los Angeles Lakers guard Michael Cooper is close to signing with Il Messaggero Roma of the Italian league.

Cooper, known for his defense and 3-point shooting, has played 12 seasons with the Lakers — longer than any other active player has been with one club.

Corriere Dello Sport said Messaggero offered Cooper, 34, a $900,000 a-year contract.

Warren Newson Batting A Cool .324 For Las Vegas Stars

By Bob Rodgers

Warren Newson, the hard hitting outfielder of the Las Vegas Stars, was a 4th round pick in the 1986 free agent draft.

He had a great season with Wichita last year hitting .304 with 18 homeruns, 70 RBIs, scoring 94 runs and stealing 20 bases in 29 attempts.

Though he has hitting power and great speed, Warren has not spent more than one year with any team in the San Diego Padre's organization.

In the previous two seasons he has the combined stats of 40 home runs, 56 stolen bases and 161 RBIs.

At present, Warren is hitting .324, with 13 homeruns, 58 RBIs, and has scored 72 runs in 108 games for the Stars.

O'Bannon Headed To Bruin Country

As expected, Ed O'Bannon, Jr., who signed a university letter last spring to play at UNLV, announced Monday he would attend UCLA, along with another lost Rebel recruit, Shon Terver.
