UNLV Junior Rodney Crozier A Defensive Specialist

By Bob Rodgers
Sports Writer

Rodney Crozier, in his third season at UNLV, has been a major contributor to the Rebels' defensive backfield.

A tough, aggressive and alert player, Crozier has developed into one of the team's better defensive players.

In last Saturday's home game against Cal State-Fullerton, Rodney made 10 tackles at the cornerback position.

As a freshman and sophomore he played on special teams, and made a career high 8 tackles on special teams in one game.

As a prepster at Edison High School in Fresno, California, Rodney gathered all-league honors three years in a row, as well as being named MVP in the Central California All-Star game.

The Economics major had lettered 3 times in football, 3 times in track, twice in soccer and once in tennis, while being voted President of Boys State during his High School years.

UNLV Defeats Cal State Fullerton 29-10 For 3rd Win

By Bob Rodgers

After playing four quarters of good football, Coach Jim Strong was all smiles after his Rebels whipped Cal State Fullerton 29-10 at the Silver Bowl.

The Rebel Defense held the Titans to 289 total yards and did not give up any large gains, the longest being a 21 yard pass.

With Hunkie Cooper scoring twice, Teddy James and Derek Black scoring once, and quarterback Derek

Cooper Wins Big West Honor

UNLV junior quarterback/wide receiver Hunkie Cooper was named Monday as the Big West Conference's Offensive Player of the Week for his all-around performance in last Saturday's victory over Cal State-Fullerton.

Paddio Among 14 Expected By Cavaliers

RICHFIELD, Ohio - The Cleveland Cavaliers, with a payroll for 1990-91 estimated at more than $14 million, expect 14 players to be on hand for their first preseason practice Friday, including former UNLV star Gerald Paddio.

Newcomers this season include rookie Danny Ferry, who joins the Cavaliers after spending a year in the Italian League, and Milos Babic, the Yugoslavian center selected by Cleveland with its only draft pick this year.

Paddio, a 6-foot-7 guard/forward, is one of two free agents to also be in camp, along with Riley Smith, a 6-8 forward from Idaho's 1990 class. Both attended the Cavaliers' rookie camp.
