EVANDER HOLYFIELD

"I chased Mike Tyson for 19 months for a shot at the title and when Buster Douglas got the chance and won," Holyfield said. Now that Holyfield is the champ, he will take on George Foreman in March or April, and Mike Tyson will have to wait.

REINSTATEMENT

Manley said last Friday.

"My hope and belief is that he will be compassionate and sympathetic to Dexter," attorney William Woolf said. "Dexter is very optimistic."

Tagliabue has said he would consider reinstating the 10-year ban after Nov. 18, the first anniversary of Manley's ban for selling cocaine.

"We won't even be considering it until Nov. 18," an NFL spokesman said.

TEAM PLAYER RAY WALTERS ENTERS THIRD YEAR AT UNLV

by Bob Rodgers

After playing defensive back in his first season, 3rd year player Ray Walters began this season as a running back. But because of his great speed, he is now a member of the special teams. This is why he is known as a team player.

The Rebel coaching staff feels that Ray is one of the hardest working players they have ever seen. He is what all teams need, a player with a winning attitude, and the ability to motivate his teammates.

As a sophomore and a freshman, he played very little, but never gave up on being a team player.

The communications major lettered in football and track for Trabucco High School in Mission Viejo, California.

WINTER BASKETBALL REGISTRATION

The City of Las Vegas Municipal Sports unit announces that registration for the winter basketball league will take place November 13-16, at the Stewart/Mojave Sports Center, 275 N. Mojave Road. Entry fee for the adult league is $375 per team and players must be at least 18 years old. League play begins January 2 at various locations. A pre-season tournament is scheduled for December 3. Call 799-2089 for more information.

"LIGHTNIN" LONNIE SMITH WINS BY DECISION TO RETAIN TITLE

by Bob Rodgers

Even though Lonnie Smith retained his NABF title, there was no "Lightnin" in the ring at the Aladdin Hotel.

The fight lacked the razzle dazzle that Smith showed in his last bout.

Though the bout was one sided, it lacked action, and it prompted the referee to tell the fighters to pick it up periodically.

After the fight, Smith stated that he had the flu. He did look rusty and not very strong at times.

Antonio Rayo (30-8-1) didn't have the ability to beat Smith.

Knowing the fight drew a few boo's from the crowd, Smith said, "I'm not trying to please anyone but myself."

NBA NOTES

- Coleman Signs $15 Million Pact -

Derrick Coleman, the New Jersey nets' No. 1 draft pick, became the highest paid rookie in NBA history last weekend after signing a five-year deal that will pay him at least $15 million.

Coleman, an All-American from Syracuse, apologized, along with Nets executive Willis Reed for not coming to a contract agreement earlier in the preseason.

The NCAA's all-time leading rebounder missed training camp and said he wouldn't be at full speed for two to three weeks.
