"SEPIA FASHION REVUE" RETURNS

SHEER ELEGANCE IN BLACK. This gown de soir of flocked velvet on tefeta, features the sky high side slit revealing legs. The draped bodice is of sheer imported flected Barcellini Lace. Gown by Nina Ricci of Paris.

"Sepia Fashion Revue", the traveling fashion show, featuring the Vogue-Esquire models of Chicago, comes to Las Vegas on Dec. 1, 1990, at UNLV's Artemus Ham Hall. "Sepia Fashion Revue", is a social event, as well as a fund raising project for Las Vegas Alumni Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

The exciting traveling fashion production will make over 70 major stops nationwide featuring some 1175 fashion creations from some of the top fashion houses in America as well as Europe. This is the 32nd annual showing of this traveling group.

The fashion revue exposes local residents to the best and latest in wearable designer fashions, and serves as a charitable tool for various civic and social organizations throughout the United States. The distinctively bold look, the 1990 theme, promises to be the fashion event of the season. The two hour fast paced production will feature top models, both male and female, who will display the latest fashion creations, and will surely leave fashion minded patrons breathless with this years dramatic presentation.

This years show will take patrons on a fashion journey to many exciting fashion destinations. Again this year, legs and more legs will be featured. Many designers have thrown caution to the winds. Style once again has overshadowed practicality, as hemlines continue to rise. Little body clinging dresses, in body molding fabrics, such as spandex, and wool jersey will be spotlighted throughout the show. There will be plenty of glitter and glow, and much glamour. This season we return to the understated looks, even though they are bold. Sophisticated suits in rich fabrics, leathers and suedes, some trimmed in fur and many enlaid and encrusted, will be the order of showing when "Sepia Fashion Revue" comes to Las Vegas.

THE LONG SLIM COLUMN of an evening gown with fluted hemline is done in red suede. The fitted bodice in scarlet sequins. Gown has matching suede stole which is bordered in dark ranch mink. Ensemble from the Champayne Collection of Richard Brown of Chicago.

HELP THE SALVATION ARMY

For the last 99 Christmas seasons The Salvation Army's bellringers have been ringing in the holiday season and raising money to help the needy.

The Salvation Army's bellringers will be at 100 valley locations this holiday season collecting change and checks to help the many needy families in the community.

The Salvation Army needs your support this holiday season. Please remember to drop your donation in the bellringing kettle when you shop. You will be helping needy families.

The merry bellringing that you hear in shopping centers at this time of the year is a reminder to help The Salvation Army. Your change can help brighten the season for a needy family.
