Kimberly's Entertainment News

LOOK UP IN THE SKY! IT'S A BIRD! IT'S A PLANE! NO! IT'S BLACKMAN! Superman has never visited the African American Community, but BLACKMAN "The Supercool Hero," is coming! BLACKMAN is the superhero for the African American public. A resident of Los Angeles' inner city, he defends the innocent against the evils of vicious drug dealers and notorious gangsters, and all to the beat of a funky soundtrack.

Business partners, Robert W. Lewis III and Richard Cusolito have launched the Los Angeles based BLACKMAN ENTERTAINMENT, a new company set to produce, BLACKMAN, The Movie. The film, which is budgeted under $10 million dollars, goes into production this summer, with a release date planned for the end of the year. "BLACKMAN, The Movie," will be shot in Los Angeles. Several major actors are currently under consideration for the title role. Another BLACKMAN, TAUREAN BLACQUE, who is one of our superhero's in the acting industry is being honored by WEST ANGELES CHURCH OF Special guests who will join in TAUREAN's tribute will be MARLA GIBBS and MAXINE WATERS just to name a few. TAUREAN is one of our good brothers in the industry who treats everyone, those who might be considered to be stars and those who may not, the same. Yeah, I am happy to announce these next words of interest because I would hope that my column not only entertains you, but also is able to present opportunities to those who are interested in the entertainment industry. It is recent news in the music industry that a national scholarship program has been established in the name of legendary keyboardist/composer and Warner Bros. Records recording artist JOE SAMPLE. It was announced at a reception held at the Nucleus Nuance in Los Angeles that THE JOE SAMPLE UNCF RHODES SCHOLARSHIP program is designed to encourage young African Americans to participate in the rebuilding of their communities and society.
