HANNAH, HOLIDAY, LANDER AND MOORE DAY GOOD-BYE IN FINAL GAMES AS UNLV LADY REBELS

By Bob Rodgers, Sportwriter

Mandy "Ice" Hannah, a three year Lady Rebel, appeared in over 85 games in her career.

Her best season was in 1989-90 when she started in all 31 games, averaged 10.9 points per game, and was an integral part of the Lady Rebels best season ever, as they posted a 28-3 record.

Hannah is from Compton,

California, and is majoring in social work.

Janice Holiday, a two year Lady Rebel, was a JUCO All-American from Odessa Junior College in Odessa, Texas.

She currently leads the team in assists and minutes played.

Known for her "no-look" passes, Janice was named to the All-Tournament team in the Duel In The Desert Classic while scoring 12 points and dishing out 9 assists in the championship game.

The communications major calls Elkhart, Indiana home.

Vicki Lander, the only senior to play all four years at UNLV is currently the 7th all-time leading scorer in Lady Rebel history. She became only the 8th player to score 1000 points in her career, and has played in over 120

Lander was team MVVP in the 7-Up Classic, while scoring 42 points in 2 games, and was named to the all-tournament team at the Lady Cougar Invitational. She was also a Big West Player of the Week in early February.

The communications major hails from Evansville, Indiana, where she was a USA Today and Converse High School All-American.

Tammy Moore, also a 2 year Lady Rebel, was a JUCO All-American at Kaskaskia Community College, where she was MVP and team captain for 2 seasons.

She returned this year after seriously injuring her knee during the second game of the 1989-90 season.

The criminal justice major from Detroit, Michigan scored a career high 19 points against Cal-State Fullerton in February.

GREG HAUGEN UPSETS UNDEFEATED HECTOR "MACHO" CAMACHO

By Bob Rodgers

Greg Haugen (28-3-1), won the biggest fight of his career by a single point as he upset Hector Camacho in what should had been a draw last weekend at Caesars Palace.

Referee Carlos Padilla took a point from Camacho for not touching gloves with Haugen before the round was about to begin. The point eventually gave Haugen to win.

In another bout, Pernell "Sweetpea" Whitaker retained his three World Lightweight titles with a unanimous decision over Anthony Jones.

Whitaker, now 25-1, may have broken his hand during the bout.
