

ATLANTA — PGA PLAYERS OF THE FUTURE? — South Carolina State College golf team members certainly think so as they clinched the championship title of the inaugural Coca-Cola Black College Invitational golf tournament, recently held at Atlanta's Browns Mill Golf Course. The tournament featured teams from 12 historically black colleges across the country. Adrienne Green, (back center), manager, Community Relations, Coca-Cola USA, is assisted by Calvin Peete, PGA professional, in presenting the team with its championship trophies. Mr. Peete also conducted a clinic during the tournament.

LEE ELDER WATTS/WILLOWBROOK CELEBRITY PRO AM GOLF CLASSIC TO TAKE PLACE IN WHITTIER ON OCT. 28

LOS ANGELES — Senior PGA Tour member Lee Elder today announced plans for the 12th Annual Watts/Willowbrook

Celebrity Boys and Girls Club Pro Am Golf Classic, to be held at the California Country Club in Whittier on Monday, October 28.

"It is my sincere pleasure to be the Honorary Chairman of this tournament," said Elder. "Over the years, thanks to a dedicated staff, the players, volunteers and sponsors, we have been able to provide the love and guidance that many of these children so desperately need."

The tournament, which has raised more than $100,000 toward the benefit of the inner-city youth organization since 1979, is sponsored by Michelob and Westside Distributors, its local wholesaler.

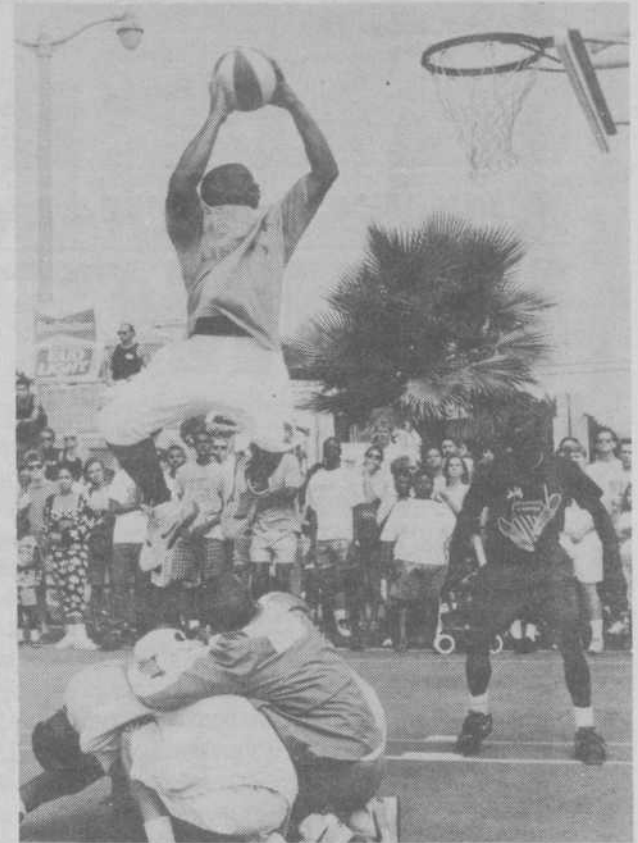

Tournament registrants will have the opportunity to meet and talk the participating golf pros and celebrities at a Pre-Golf Reception at The Townhouse, 6835 La Tijera, on Saturday, October 26, from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m.

On Monday, Elder will conduct a golf clinic at 9 a.m. The tournament will begin at 10 a.m., with a shotgun start and best ball format. There will be six flights for men and two for women, along with a Pro Division and Champion Flight.

Three trophies will be awarded per flight and special prizes (Closest to the Pin, Longest Drive, Door Prizes...etc.) will also be presented.

Entry fee is $150 and includes the reception, all green fees, golf cart, tee gifts, raffle, lunch and dinner.

To register or for more information, call Marva Martin, even coordinator, at (213)567-2278.
