HUD FORECLOSURE COMMISSIONERS

HUD is seeking responsible parties with experience in non-judicial foreclosure of Nevada commercial and multifamily residential properties for designation as Foreclosure Commissioners under the Multifamily Foreclosure Act of 1981 (12 U.S.C. 3701-3717). Commissioners receive $2500 plus expenses for each foreclosure sale completed. Commissioners must be residents of Nevada or if business entities rather than natural persons, must be authorized to do business in Nevada. In addition, HUD must find designees to be responsible, financially sound and competent to conduct foreclosures. Applications must be in writing and contain the following current information:

1. Name.
2. Business Address.
3. Cities or counties in which the applicant wishes to conduct foreclosures (Applicant may list only cities and counties in State in which it is a resident or is duly authorized to transact business).
4. If applicant is not a natural person, the names and business address of people who would actually perform the commissioner's duties.
5. Description of applicant's experience in conducting mortgage foreclosures or in related activities which would qualify the applicant to serve as a foreclosure commissioner.
6. Evidence of applicant's financial responsibility.

Send applications or requests for further information to Alfred J. De Martini, HUD Associate Regional Counsel, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, 94102, Phone (415) 556-7457.

Applications should be received at the HUD office above listed by November 11, 1991.
