OVERTON CURTIS

Long-Time Las Vegan, Role Model, Succumbs In Car Accident

Long-time Las Vegas educator and track coach, Overton Curtis, died in a traffic accident early Sunday morning after his car struck a curb on Discovery Drive and traveled into a desert area and overturned several times before coming to a rest on its side.

The accident occurred at approximately 10 a.m. after he was reportedly traveling north on Discovery approaching Alta Drive at a high rate of speed.

Curtis, 55, who in November was honored as one of the first inductees into the Las Vegas Black Sports Hall of Fame, worked for the Clark County School District for many years as a teacher and coach.

At the time of his death, Curtis worked at Rancho High School.

COLOR ME BAAAAAAD.... nominated for SIX American Music Awards

Pop singing group sensation Color Me Badd performed in Las Vegas for a concert following the announcement of being top nominee of six awards, three in the soul-rhythm & blues category. The four 21-year-olds from Oklahoma City have two hot releases in the single category, "I Adore Mi Amor" and "I Wanna Sex You Up". (Photos by Savoy/LVS-Voice)
