

NORTH LAS VEGAS BOYS & GIRLS CLUB HOSTS FREE OPEN HOUSE FOR KIDS

On Wednesday, February 12, from 6 - 8:30 p.m., children and their parents will have a fun opportunity to celebrate the grand opening of the newly remodeled North Las Vegas Boys & Girls Clubs.

Festivities are free one-year membership. The "Family Festival Open House" will include appearances by UNLV Rebel Basketball players, Ricky Sobers (former championship Portland Trailblazer), North Las Vegas Fire Department "Homey," free pizza, soft drinks and games for all.

The event is designed to re-introduce the 30-year old club to the neighborhood. More than 20 community leaders, including the City of North Las Vegas and the Lied Foundation, worked together to raise more than $225,000 to put in a new teen center, computer room, renovated indoor gym, grass field and much more.

The club is located at 2530 East Carey, just one block east of North Las Vegas Boulevard. For more information call 367-CLUB.

SENIORS LEARN TO SKETCH WITH MITCH

Albert "Mitch" Mitchell is a 72-year-old retired commercial artist and sign painter who is going to share his knowledge with seniors at a class called "Sketching with Mitch." The class will meet from 10 a.m. to noon every Friday starting February 7 at the Doolittle Satellite Senior Center, 1901 N. "J" Street.

"Participants will have fun learning quick sketching in a friendly atmosphere. We will start with the basics. Squares and circles, then shapes, forms and perspective," said Mitchell.

All supplies are provided and the classes are free.

Mitchell works as a senior citizen assistant for the City of Las Vegas Senior Citizen Programs Division and is also a volunteer park ambassador for the City in his spare time.

A native of New York City, Mitchell has lived in Las Vegas for 11 years and hopes to retire in Arupa in the future.

His hobbies include music, writing poetry and painting. He

LV-CLARK COUNTY LIBRARY DISTRICT CELEBRATES BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Black History Month is a time to honor the pride and personal achievements of Black heritage. To celebrate this important month, African-American music, stories and photographs will be presented throughout the Las Vegas-Clark County Library District during February.

"A Collection of Black Memorabilia," on loan from artists Gwen Walker and John Stephens, Kick-off the month with antique photographs of ordinary citizens such as Madam Mollie E. Corney of Texas, who was a leader in the field of cosmetology.

The Black memorabilia collection salutes black achievers for their contributions throughout the world. Viewing the collection continues through February 20 at the West Las Vegas Library, 921 W. Lake Mead Blvd., Beni Casselle Gallery.

Young readers can enjoy Black History Month through

African-American folktales and films.

A celebration of African-American folktales, such as "Rugmaker," will highlight the Black History Month Film Festival at the Clark County Library, 1401 E. Flamingo Rd., Satur-

Miller
Celebrates
Black History Month

Of the 19 films by Black filmmakers released in 1991 the vast majority attained both critical acclaim and box office success. And that's the kind of history-making first we at Miller Brewing Company are proud to salute this Black History Month.

So here's a very special offer: Miller is offering movie memorabilia from the "Spike's Joint" merchandise catalog. And if you buy a videocassette of "Do The Right Thing" or "Mo' Better Blues", both directed by Spike Lee, you'll be entitled to discounts on this memorabilia.

For each order you place, Miller will donate $2 to the Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Fund, which enables deserving students to attend Black public colleges and universities.

Get The Right Discount From Miller When You Purchase MCA/Universal Home Video(s) "Do The Right Thing" or "Mo' Better Blues." At The Suggested Retail Price Of $19.99 Each.

Get the Official T-shirts and Caps from the above videos at a discount when you purchase one or two of the videos and send your proof-of-purchase (POP) along with this order form and check.
