NCAA meet.

Ranked in the top 10, in the triple jump, Butler gives the Rebels a strong chance to finish first and second in the nation.

Iring captured the 400 meters at the Big West meet last year.

Smith missed last year's track season due to grades but won the 100 meters, the long jump and anchored two of the Rebels' first-place relay teams at the 1990 conference meet.

The Rebels' next big meet is Saturday at the 25-team Cornhusker Invitational in Lincoln, Neb.

5. OHIO ST. 15-3

NOTES:

Three of the top teams in the nation caught the upset bug this past Wednesday evening as Duke and Oklahoma St. fell out of the unbeaten ranks to North Carolina and Nebraska, respectively. Arkansas lost to Tennessee 83-81. Duke, which held the #1 spot since the start of the season, lost to ACC rival NC 75-73 just as they (Duke) were taking over the reign as the powerhouse team in the state of North Carolina. Oklahoma St. were throttled when they visited Nebraska in a Big Eight matchup. This Saturday #1 Kansas will visit #3 Oklahoma St. the winner should grab the #1 position regardless of what #2 Duke does. The Top 5 are followed by: Indiana, North Carolina, Arkansas, Arizona and Connecticut.

PRO FOOTBALL:

Dallas Cowboys' wide receiver, Michael Irvin, tied a Pro Bowl record with 8 receptions for 125 yards and 1 T.D. Irvin led the NFC to a 21-15 victory over the AFC and also captured the MVP trophy.

If all your children deserved to go to college, but you could only send one, how would you choose?

A better question is why should you have to choose? Why shouldn't every bright, hard-working kid get a chance to fulfill his or her dreams? That's why your donation to the United Negro College Fund is so important. As the most experienced source in providing general operating support for historically black colleges, we've enabled thousands of deserving students to get a quality education.

But there are still thousands who urgently need your support. How can we possibly say yes to one and no to another? Send your donation to: UNCF, 500 E. 62nd St., New York, NY 10021.
