Robert Douglas came from a Roman Catholic background. His family attended church, but there was no sense of being close to God. The Douglas family were a military family and moved frequently which left Robert having difficulty establishing any depth in relationships. His parents were both alcoholics which left devastating effects on the family. Life in general was difficult until 1975. Robert had an encounter with Jesus Christ through the witness for a man he worked for. After accepting Christ as his Savior, Robert was delivered from many life controlling problems including a 20 year depression. Shortly thereafter, Robert felt called to serve Christ by serving others. Robert is currently the Pastor of West Valley Assembly of God of Church.

A LETTER TO EVERY PASTOR UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF AMERICA

My Dear Friend in Christ:

The National Baptist Convention of America, Inc., in concert with national heads of other religious denominations, the Reverend Jesse Jackson and other high-profile African-Americans, have embarked on what we believe will be the most successful voter registration drive ever launched in this country. This letter is to officially solicit the vigorous support of every pastor of every church under the auspices of NBCA to begin, immediately, a plan to have every member of every church registered to vote in time for the 1992 presidential election. Progress, like charity, begins at home.

In order to fight the erosion of civil rights gains made over the years, it is imperative that the voice of African-Americans be heard resoundingly in future elections. That voice cannot be greater amplified than through demonstrated power at the voting booth.

There are millions of persons of color who have not registered to vote in our nation. Splintered efforts to increase voter registration in the past have not met with the desired success. The NBCA holds that a registration effort stemming from the various churches, with their great memberships, can be tremendously successful and will make an undeniable impact nationally.

Religious leaders, such as

DR. E. EDWARD JONES
President, N.B.C.A.

yourself (ourselves), have a spiritual and moral obligation to continue the fight for equal opportunity and to help the disenfranchised and the downtrodden to gain a full measure of opportunity in this country. To achieve this end, we ask you to begin TODAY a drive within your individual church to ensure that every person eligible to vote is registered to vote in time for the upcoming election. At the same time, we urge your input into how this effort may be made a resounding success.

Sure of Eternal Life,
E. Edward Jones, President
