the tape, when they showed the film."

Ron Futrell of KTNV-13 put together a remarkable video of the past years at UNLV and of course Jerry Tarkanian. The video had songs, dubbed into it, such as: "Nobody Does It Better" and "Unforgettable."

"It brought back a lot of great memories," said Tarkanian, about the video.

"I think we've done some things here (UNLV) that very few schools have ever done. We have had a tremendous following and some great ball clubs," added JT.

Many members of the media were very interested in what lies ahead for Tarkanian. The (former) UNLV coach said that if he isn't coaching he'd think about running for Board Of Regents. That remark received many laughs but Tark responded, "you laugh at it, but I'm serious about that."

He must be very serious because at the end of the press conference, someone from the back of the room yelled: "Hey Tark, where's your next victory?" Tarkanian paused, looked out at the media, smiled and replied-"My next victory... ..when I become Board Of Regent."

Who knows, maybe Jerry T. will be on the Board Of Regents someday and be instrumental in voting a certain president out of office.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

NOTES:

Bo Jackson, still slowed by the hip injury that sidelined him for all but the final month last season, found it awkward to get around the bases at a Chicago White Sox intrasquad game this past Wednesday. Manager Gene Lamont said Jackson would start against Pittsburgh in the exhibition season-opener. The White Sox have until March 15 to decide whether to keep him or cut him.

NOTES:-

Tony Tubbs tested positive for cocaine following a Feb. 16 TKO of Leon Taylor. The former WBA Heavyweight Champion faced a disciplinary hearing before the Nevada Athletic Commission. The commission will probably act on the complaint against Tubbs at its March 25 meeting. Tubbs could be fined, suspended or have his license revoked. He may also be ordered to undergo drug counseling and/or perform community service.

-Mills Lane of Reno has been selected as the referee for the March 20 Thomas Hearns-Iran Barkley WBA light heavyweight title fight at Caesars Palace. Jerry Roth, Chuck Giampa and Lou Tabat, all of Las Vegas, were selected as the judges.
