

Kimberly's Entertainment News

SHE'S BACK! Yes, I am BACK in the BLACK. Live and direct from my home base, Las Vegas, Nevada. It's good to be back home, and without any further adieu, lets get to the HAPPENINGS of LOVE, PEACE, AND SOUL with the SOUL TRAIN AWARDS. As usual, the 6th annual Soul Train Awards event was the place to be last week in LA-LALAND, Hollywood Ca. I arrived in the La-La fare city on Monday, March 9, 1992. My first order of business was to secure my JAMIN ON THE BOX' outfit for the fly SOUL AFFAIR. Accompanied by my two year old son, JONATHAN and mother, ANN BAILEY (WHO I WOULD LIKE TO THANK FOR COMING ALONG ON MY TRIP SO I COULD ENJOY FAMILY AND PARTY'S AT THE SAME TIME) it wasn't long before I found that perfect OH SO HOT outfit. Oh! Before I give you the SOUL SCOOP, I am still excepting GREEN PAPER (MO MONEY) to keep on keeping on with the entertainment News YOU WANT TO READ. "WHO YOU GONNA CALL?" I guess NOT ME, if I can't PAY my phone bill. Just a little note...PLEASE SEND ALL KIMBERLY'S ENTERTAINMENT NEWS (MAKE CHECKS OUT TO KIMBERLY BAILEY) DONATIONS TO 716 SOUTH 6TH STREET LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89107. THANK YOU VERY MUCH. Now, where was I? Well, that first March 9, 1992 night the annual PRE-SOUL TRAIN AWARDS PARTY took place downtown Los Angeles at the SHERATON HOTEL. Public relations consultant, Shiela Eldride (one of my nefferti sisters) coordinates the pre-party every year. Yes, it was GIRLS NIGHT OUT with both my SISTER-GIRL-FRIENDS, MAKEDA AND

MARIE. Yes, LET THE PARTY BEGIN. WE HAVE ARRIVED, and WHO DO I SEE? TEDDY RILEY IN THE PARTY HOUSE. HEY TEDDY, WHAT'S UP? Yes, girlfriends TEDDY is truly a TEDDY BEAR. SO-SO nice, cute and cuddly. He didn't hesitate when I asked him to take pictures with us, and he also asked me to dance with him the on hit TLC record, "AIN'T TO PROUD TO BEG." The party was BUMPING, and as I made my way through the soulful crowd, I saw ALB-SURE! Surely, he is THE ONE, and as SADE WOULD SAY, "SWEET AS CHERRY PIE."

Atlantic Starr was also in the party house. It was nice seeing the LEWIS BROTHERS because I hadn't seen them since my days as their publicist. Glad to see that they are BACK ON THE BLOCK with a MASTER PIECE single. A lot of industry managers and agents were there representing their artists. I had a JAMIN time encouraging them to utilize "ARMSTRONG TRAVEL" on their next tours. JIMMY JAM AND TERRY LEWIS were also on hand. I couldn't believe it when I saw who was accompanying JIMMY JAM. I didn't know that JIMMY preferred CREAM IN HIS COFFEE. Well, Whatever make's your BEAT BUMP JIMMY, but I wish your beats were bumping THE RIGHT WAY. There is no excuse because there are too many of my NEFFERTTI SISTERS available. Like a beautiful GARDEN OF EDEN, we are the original DIAMONDS AND PEARLS OF THE WORLD. As I was talking to SURFACE'S manager, a deep voice came up (See Kimberly, Page 17) search of the "Great White Hope." It's from that slogan the play got it's name. The promoter and the public forced Jim Jeffries out of retirement. The fight was set to take place in our fair state in the town of Reno, July 4, 1910. This was the White mans only hope of getting the heavyweight title back.

The play opens up at the scene of Brady's farm with Jack Jefferson who is the fictional character of Jim Jeffries. The show was exceptionally cast, Jack Jefferson, the fictional name for Jack Johnson was brilliantly played by David Cousin. The show moved and kept the audiences attention. The racial slurs hit hard and hit home. We are not far from the early 1900's except we now are experiencing Neo-Racism. The play was portrayed very realistic and at times I felt that I was exactly there. Brian Strom and his cast did an excellent performance. Jack Johnson died in 1946 in a car accident. Randy Roberts wrote a book about Jack called "Papa Jack." In Jack's own words, "stick around baby and never call me Daddy!"
