GALA TRIBUTE TO HONOR KID AKEEM

"KID" AKEEM ANIFOWOSHE

The Mike Tyson incident has not turned beautiful women from the sport of boxing. Miss Nevada 1992, Alesia Prentiss will host and Las Vegas's lovely vocalist, Mary Oliver will entertain the friends of the boxing world at a gala tribute to honor Kid Akeem. The event is scheduled for Friday, April 10, at 7:30 p.m. at the Sands Expo Convention Center. Akeem Anifowoshe was forced to retire his NABF Title after a tactical fight for the IBF Championship gave the doctors cause to state his chances for survival to be precarious at best. Kid Akeem may not fight in the ring again, but he will still have a brilliant career thanks to his many friends and fans.

This very special evening is one you won't want to miss. Accompanying Miss Oliver will be the Gene Redden Quartet, along with "BTG" Accappella Group, The Checkmates and The Simba Dance Troupe. Chuck Hall and Sweet Louie are masters of ceremony. In attendance will be not only the boxing greats of yesterday and today, but celebrities of all sports and areas of entertainment: George Foreman, Iran Barkley, James Toney, Kennedy McKinney, Mike McCallum, Jeff Mayweather, Michael Nunn, Charles Dutton of "Roc", Bubba Knight, George Wallace, Michael Dokes, Debbie Morgan, and many others. Tickets are available at Top Rank Gym, 3041 Business Lane or you may mail your donations in and pick up tickets at the Sands Expo Convention Center, by calling 735-4486. Donations are $50.00 per person or $500.00 per table. There will also be a raffle for a giant boxing glove autographed by all the boxing champions.

All proceeds go to Kid Akeem, and are tax deductible.

LAS VEGAS BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB ANNOUNCES "YOUTH OF THE YEAR"

On February 11, Yvette Baca was awarded the Boys and Girls Clubs of Las Vegas "Youth of the Year" award. Stan Jones, President of the Board, presented the award at the Boys and Girls Club annual luncheon.

Yvette was chosen out of 7,000 club members, not just because of her strong what she gives back to the younger club members as a solid role model.

Yvette lives with her mother and sister in a housing development just north of the 28th Street Boys and Girls Club. Having spent her entire childhood in a rough neighborhood, Yvette works hard at not succumbing to peer pressure or gang pressure, and tries to influence younger club members to stay away from gangs and drugs. She has worked the last three summers
