cold running water. The units also have power steering, generator, dual batteries, high intensity reading lights, and campground hooks ups.

For your convenience, a complete motor home orientation tour is provided to acquaint you with the operation of the vehicle at "check out." Specific vehicle instructions are generally available upon request.

Camping has always been a bargain. It is still one of the most economical ways for you and your family to travel and visit this great land of ours. Camp with the KOA value card and save even more. In addition to a 10 percent discount on camping fees, the value card entitles you to express check in and money back guarantee if you are not satisfied with facilities or services within one hour of check in.

For many who travel, the destination is more meaningful than the trip. For those who desire the ultimate in travel experiences and the enduring pleasure found in the journey itself, there is motor home travel.

BLACK BUSINESS

We decided to use the name Sadies instead of Pams.

LINDA-Is this your first restaurant?

PAMELA-No, as a matter of fact this is our second restaurant. Our first restaurant was in Los Angeles, Lillies Country Kitchen was, off of Sunset Blvd, named after my mom. We were open for five years and then we had a tragedy...we were burned out, that is why we closed the business down.

LINDA-I am amazed at the number of businesses that are relocating to Las Vegas. Why did you decide to come here?

PAMELA-Well, we were in Hawaii and I was going to open up the restaurant there, but the right location in Hawaii was hard to find. Parking is a very big deal there and I just couldn't find the location that satisfied me. So, I told my husband I was coming to the mainland to look for a location. He told me to go to California Vista. I knew I didn't want to live in California. So, I decided to come in Vegas. I was here 24 hours and I found the spot I wanted. I went back to Hawaii-packed and came back here.

LINDA-So, you packed up and moved to Vegas to open your restaurant. Did you do any advertisement?

PAMELA-None, we haven't done any advertisement with the exception of flyers in this area.

LINDA-Thats surprising because everyone is talking about your restaurant. I actually found out about your place through word of mouth. Has your overall response in Vegas been good?

PAMELA-Absolutely wonderful. Its actually caught me off guard. I didn't expect the business to get off on such a quick start. I knew my business would succeed, because I was going to work hard to make sure that it did. I just thought it would take at least 6 months for the word to get out. But instead, we've had to hire another person to help do the cooking. He is being trained now by me.

LINDA-Pamela, how long have you been cooking?

PAMELA-Believe it or not since I was 5 or 6 years old. My mother used to stand my siblings and I on chairs and had us cook. There were 12 of us, so when we got home from school we cooked.

LINDA-Did you imagine yourself owning your own restaurant?

PAMELA-Yes, this is what I've always wanted to do. I didn't just want a restaurant. I wanted a nice restaurant, not the norm. Something like one's own dining room at home.
