GAMMA PHI DELTA FORMS TEEN GROUP

On February 1, 1992 a special group was formed in Las Vegas, the PHI-TEENS SORORITIES of GAMMA PHI-DELTA SORORITY—DELTA KAPPA CHAPTER. February 9, 1992, Gamma Phi-Delta introduced the Phi-Teens to the public at their FOUNDER'S DAY LUNCHEON.

The first community service was the Doolittle Center's Annual Easter Egg Hunt which was held at the West Las Vegas Library, for children 4 yrs. and under. The Phi-Teens assisted in hiding the eggs. There were prizes for those who found special eggs. The prizes ranged from Easter Baskets to a Tricycle. They also assisted in the 11th annual "THIS IS YOUR LIFE BANQUET," Honorees were Mrs. Rose McKinney James, who was appointed Public Service Commissioner of Nevada in 1988, Dr. Kenneth C. Westfield M.D., one of the leading Ophthalmologists in Las Vegas, and Mr. Thomas "HITMAN" Hearn, who among others holds the World Boxing Organization Super Middleweight Title. He couldn't attend the banquet due to illness in the family. He did make a contribution to the organization's scholarship fund

Send the Right Message With 'Color Correct' Clothes

News USA

(NU) - The colors you wear send messages. So to be sure you're "color correct," Tina Sutton, national fashion consultant for Hit or Miss, America's leading off-price women's career and casual fashion store, offers these common reactions to specific colors, along with recommendations for when to wear them.

Navy Blue: Trustworthy and conservative. Wear it when you're making presentations or want to inspire confidence.

Black: Sophisticated and authoritative. Use it to show you're in charge.

Taupe: Classic and practical. Because it's so warm and likeable, wear it when you need cooperation from peers.

Red: Energetic and dynamic. There's a feeling of motion with red, even when someone is standing still. Wear it to capture the attention of others.

Purple: Regal and powerful. Although most women love purple, many men do not. Avoid wearing it when meeting a man for the first time. It may be risky.

Bright Green: Fresh and lively. A good color to wear if you're cheerleading friends or coworkers on a project.

Orange: Friendly and playful. Wear it when meeting with peers rather than superiors.

Soft Pink: Soft and compassionate. It lacks authority, but can be used to soften a bad situation. Wear it when dealing with a difficult matter.

Dark Green: Rich and traditional. It makes you look secure and successful. After all, it's the color of money!

Yellow: Cheerful and eye-catching. Wear yellow to inspire creativity and optimism.

Hot Pink: Trendy and bright. Though not conservative, it's an attention-grabber!

Aqua: Soft and refreshing. Although it lacks power, it's soothing and likeable. Wear it to have a calming influence on others.

We are looking forward to more community service activities and fundraising in the future.

"Being a Phi-Teens myself, I feel as though I will try to learn all there is to know about young black women in our society today. We are learning what we can do to motivate and support our young sisters and brothers in our community.

We like being role models for teen-age girls, because we feel we need more young role models to identify with," said Kamil Brewster, Editor-in-Chief.

The members are: Rosalyn Jackson - President; Miya Amie - Vice President; Renee Jackson - Secretary; LaDora Feaster - Asst. Secretary; Nateal Jacobs - Treasurer; Aisha Amie - Financial Secretary; Deoni Hall - Chaplin; Roshonda Thornton - Monitress; Kamil Brewster - Editor-in-Chief; Kenyoni Gaines; Charlotte Redding; Ms. Pay Spencer - Youth Advisor; and Ms. Ruby Amie-Hines - Chapter Basileus
