

FOR THE LADIES

NEVADA POWER COMPANY NAMES NEW VICE PRESIDENT

Nevada Power Company has named Gloria Bank-Weddle, vice president the company's human resources department. She will be responsible for labor relations, benefits and compensation, affirmative action and human resource development and training.

Bank-Weddle joined Nevada Power in 1973 as a junior clerk. She was promoted to a senior clerk at the service center warehouse in 1978, to an inventory coordinator in 1980, and joined human resources in 1988. She became manager of compensation and benefits in 1991 and director of human resources in October of 1991. Prior to joining Nevada Power, she worked at Nevada State Bank.

Banks-Weddle is a graduate of Las Vegas' Bishop Gorman High School and received her bachelor of science degree in business and financial management from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. She plans to complete her MBA at National University in 1992. She is a member of Western Pension and Benefits Conference, Pacific Coastal Electrical Association and is on the steering committee for the Boys and Girls Club, and is involved with United Way. She is Nevada Power's Representative for the UNLV Entrepreneurship program, and is on the Board of Directors for the Nevada Black Chamber of Commerce.

GLORIA BANK-WEDDLE

Bank-Weddle has been a resident of Las Vegas since 1954. She and her husband Davan, have one daughter, Angela.

DELTA HONOREES

— The Delta Sigma Theta Sorority's New York Alumnae Chapter presented its prestigious Jewel Award to three prominent New Yorkers during its recent Evening of Elegance at the Terrace on the Park, Flushing Meadow Park, New York. The award recipients, holding their awards, are Allene Roberts, third from right, Manager, Public Programs, Philip Morris Companies Inc., Carol Jenkins, second from left, WNBC-TV correspondent, and Ruby Dee, third from left, noted actress and author. Looking on are, from left: Amy Johnson-Ferdinand, President, Delta Sigma Theta New York Alumnae Chapter; Dr. Jeanne Noble, past National President, Delta Sigma Theta; Roz Abrams, WABC-TV News Anchor and Mistress of Ceremonies for the evening; Denise Palmer-Glaude, Dinner Co-Chair and Wilhelmina Holiday, Deputy Commissioner, Community Affairs, New York City Police Department. One of 800 chapters of the seventy-nine-year-old Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., the New York Alumnae Chapter has pursued an active public service role in the New York community since its formation in 1920. The chapter mirrors the national organization's involvement with educational and economic development, physical and mental health, political involvement and international awareness.

STREETWISE PROMOTES MARTIN

Dorothy Martin has recently been promoted to Vice-President of Public Relations and Director of Special Events for the Las Vegas community youth organization StreetWise Alive. Martin has had an extensive career in television and radio ranging from being a sports color commentator to playing TV show extras on NBC. Martin has helped local radio stations organize concerts and co-owns SMART Entertainment.

Dorothy Martin

Martin, as a mother, began as a volunteer for StreetWise Alive seeing the need to help provide a drug-free and gang-free avenue for her family to grow up in

.Established in 1989, StreetWise Alive provides a variety of activities such as aerobics, career nights, dances, parent groups, young adult talents showcases and more. For more information about volunteering and/or involving your children call 367-3733.

*Tall, Short, Full-Figured?
Can't find clothing to fit?
Expert seamstress/alterationist.*

*I'll fit you to a tee!
Reasonable rates.*

- Alterations
- Dressmaking
- Bridal
- Leathers
- Suedes
- Hand-Loomed Knitwear

Designs by Donna

593-4839 FOR INFORMATION OR APPOINTMENT

AUTOGRAPH SESSION

Saturday May 30th
Waldenbooks in the Meadows Mall
4300 Meadows Lane
12 Noon-2 P.M.
"A Trip Through Hell"
an Autobiography by Hattie M. Cousain