

NATIONAL ALLIANCE AGAINST RACIST & POLITICAL REPRESSION

WEED AND WHAT?

By James Tate

For some strange reason there is about to be a cruel hoax played on the African-American community of Las Vegas. This shell game is to be called "weed and seed." It is purportedly being proposed by none other than those bastions of integrity, the Federal Bureau of Investigations, along of course, with those great humanists at the Metropolitan Police Department. Now this is the way this particular shell game is supposed to operate. In return for the African-American communities, either turning over or allowing young African-American males to be captured, there will be some amount of funds given to the African-American community. This is under the guise of "weeding out the undesirable elements."

Now of course what is left unsaid is who is defining what is undesirable. For example, some of us might consider some of the members of the Metropolitan Police Department as highly undesirable. Others might consider any African-American male who doesn't bow down to a master, are themselves undesirable. The problem here is that this is a program that in our view is totally unnecessary, totally unacceptable, and a shameless attempt to again get African-American youths to march happily to the concentration camp. The question that we should ask is why should the FBI be proposing this program?

After all, this is the same organization that brought you COINTELPRO, the program instituted by the late J. Edgar Hoover, which was specifically and publicly stated to be designed to destroy any African-American leadership that was not already controlled by the predominant white culture. It is not like this was any secret when the revelations began to come out during the Watergate investigation — COINTELPRO was exposed clearly for exactly what it was.

As J. Edgar Hoover himself stated, "there will never be another black Messiah," and so far, he has pretty much been correct, for there has been no repeats of Malcolm or Martin. Now come the same groups of neofascist criminals, the Federal Bureau of Investigations along with their partners in crime, the Metropolitan Police Department of Las Vegas, and propose this so called weed and seed garbage. Believe me, this is nothing more than a rehash of their COINTEL program which destroys so many of our African-American youth including Geronimo Pratt, Leonard Peltier, the Black Panther Party, as well as murder victims Mark Clark and Fred Hampton. Very clearly, there needs to be a very forceful and resounding rejection of this weed and seed program and indeed we should be all very cautious of he who brings this program before us. For it will be clear that he who brings masters plan before us is indeed the traitor, and the fate of a traitor has been the same throughout history.

KEYNOTE SPEECH

Date Line- Fort Smith, AR.

Things are starting to settle down to normal here in the aftermath of my high school alma mater's stellar Centennial Celebration. Amid all of the hoopla, there was a genuine common bond linking the more than 1,000 celebrants here for the festivities. With all of the news coverage, I almost felt like I was back in Las Vegas.

Following is a reprint of a front page newspaper article in last Sunday's Fort Smith Times-Record. At long last, I will be returning to Las Vegas next week. — Until then!

LINCOLNITE REGRETS CLOSING

July 26, 1992 — By Matt Malle of the SWTR

One hundred years after the first graduate received a degree from the former all-black Lincoln High School in Fort Smith, one of the schools last graduates questioned why the school he cherished eventually closed.

Ray Willis, a 1965 graduate of Lincoln High School, said in his keynote address Saturday to more than 500 school alumni that the all-black school had flourished for nearly 75 years. But when the doors finally closed in 1966, the programs that had propelled their careers faded as well.

Lincoln High opened in 1892, eventually offering students core curriculum in science, math, english, history, home economics and dozens of other courses. In 1966, the school abruptly closed during a move to desegregate the city's educational system.

Willis, director of public information for the Clark County School District in Las Vegas, was one of the last graduates of the Lincoln School here. As a reporter in Fort Smith in the 1970's, he said he witnessed the eventual demolition of his alma mater.

The schools demise signaled "the sad ending of an illustrious era in the education of untold thousands of African American high school students in this part of Arkansas," Willis said.

Willis said the school was at its peak- had in fact recently added classrooms and a gymnasium- when the district transferred its student body to Northside High School and closed the Lincoln School.

"They closed our school and integrated our students with theirs," Willis said of the Fort Smith School District administrators in 1966. "What would have been the problem in keeping Lincoln open and integrating the other way?"

Willis urged members of the black community to love each other and their heritage and remember the success of the school they once shared.

"It's obvious that Lincoln High School made an positive difference in the quality of our lives," he said, pointing to the hundreds who gathered in the Holiday Inn. "And that's a difference the so-called integrated schools by all accounts, seem to be failing miserably.

"No integrated school in the world can duplicate the essence of our experience as Lincolnites."

N.L.V. ... THE WESTSIDE STORY

DEAL WITH THIS!

by R.K. Brown

We are all familiar with the expression "Warhawk". It has been the cornerstone of the Conservative agenda, since imperialism began. In this way elitists can always persuade honest American Families, to "give their sons away" for the sake "of the country."

This has always been a major focus of America's conservative regime. They have always taken what they couldn't gain diplomatically. This warhawk philosophy has forcefully taken; Native American, African, Australian, Mexican, and Hawaiian lands! No black American should take this realization lightly.

While they "train" the American public to "worship" the system; they promote "national" pride, and the greatness of "our" country. The most vital link in this process is, creating a "maniac", or Hitler; out of any foreign adversary! Obviously, blacks know this better than anyone. Just last week we were discussing how they target our community with continuous race baiting. Anyway, you get the picture. In the past it was, "those savage Indians, or Animalistic slaves". During the taking of spanish lands in Texas, and California, it was the same thing. Conservatives have always found some people of color, to become the enemy of the state, when they "need" war. We haven't had to fight a major confrontation on our own soil since the beginning of this century. Why all the war then?

In this brainwashing process, they somehow talk the very people they are oppressing, into the system of front line "protection". Middle and lower class people fight wars. It would seem to me, that we should be the last to volunteer for service. If some confrontation broke out, the poor should defend the American "front". Send rich elitists who have "all the expensive "equipment and expertise", to fight abroad. This is how the system usually operates!

The elitists have access to America's wealth and diversity. They enjoy the rewards. But, when it comes to dying for the country, they turn all of the money for training, access to jobs, luxury equipment, and housing over to the lower classes. You will be sent to elegant locations to often die for your country.

I have said all of this, because with this conservative mind set, I wouldn't be surprised to see us again at war with Middle Eastern states. Their 12 year regime in the White House is (See Deal With This, Page 18)
