

DIVISION LEADING CHARGERS TRAVEL TO WILDCAT STADIUM

By Bill Lee

In the wake of last weeks horrendous prediction of the Gaels shutout defeat by the wrath of the Western Warriors, when in fact the Gorman squad produced a balanced attack in the second half to take the victory convincingly, this reporter finds himself eating a plate of the proverbial "Sports Crow!" Kudos to the Gaels.

Now on with this week's preview. The Sunset Division leading Clark Chargers journey to Wildcat Stadium to take on Las Vegas High in a contest hyped as the game of the week. Clark is coming off of a 29-14 spanking of the Bonanza Bengals. Clark will try to take advantage of Vegas' generous defensive unit, which gives up an average of 338.7 yards per game. The Chargers' offense gains an average of 263.0 ypg.

It was a homecoming for Las Vegas that ended in an embarrassing thrashing at the hands of the Green Valley Gators by the score of 40-7. The Wildcats' high-powered offense was nowhere to be seen as Green Valley's top-ranked defense dampened the homecoming event.

Head Coach Tyrone Armstrong should have his Wildcats ready for Clark, who will attempting to increase their division lead. Unless the Chargers just totally breakdown and forget how to play good football, they should prevail. Clark victorious!!!

In other matchups this Friday evening, The Chaparral Cowboys will head to Henderson for a matchup with Basic; Valley will travel to Sunrise Mountain for a clash with the state's third-ranked team, Eldorado; Green Valley, the darkhorse this year, will ramble into Northtown to meet the always tough Rancho Rams; In a battle of last place teams, Cheyenne visits Bonanza; and finally, the Spartans of Cimarron will host Western.

ABRACADABRA - MAGIC WILL REAPPEAR

Sentinel-Voice

"I'm very excited about re-joining the Lakers," said Earvin "Magic" Johnson, after announcing that he will come out of retirement for the 1992-93 season.

"The All-Star game and Olympics were tremendous and unforgettable experiences, but the intense competition of the NBA and the camaraderie of being with my teammates is something that can't be replaced and something I'm thrilled to be a part of again. I think we have an outstanding team and I'm hopeful that we can bring another championship to Los Angeles next June."

In his announcement, Johnson indicated he will play 50-60 of the Lakers' 82 regular-season games this year, as well as four pre-season games, including October 16 v.s. Portland in Honolulu; October 20 v.s. Philadelphia at the Great Western Forum; October 23 v.s. Sacramento at San Diego; and October 30 v.s. Cleveland at Chapel Hill, N.C.

Magic was confident about the upcoming season, explaining that the Lakers will be making a run at the title.

"We're definitely going to be 35-0 lead, allowing New York to score 28 unanswered points.

Smith is among the NFL's leading running backs, as is Walker; But Emmitt won't be the key to Dallas' success against Philly. WR Michael Irvin will be the weapon Dallas will need to topple the Eagles. If the Aikman-Irvin combo is on time, it could be a long night for the Eagles.

The Dolphins-Bills game might not be carrying as much hype as the Dallas-Philly game, but you can bet it will be hard-fought contest between two of the best quarterbacks in the league, and two of the finest coaches in the sport.

a contender. I have to commend Jerry West and Randy Pfund for picking up James Edwards and Anthony Peeler. James is great in the low-post and that's something we didn't have last year. And Anthony will come in and provide us with some scoring. It's the deepest team since I've been here. James Worthy looks as good as ever. Vlade, Sedale, AC, Byron - all of them have been working out everyday."

Magic said that after sitting down with his two doctors, his wife Cookie, and his parents, he knew it was time to go back to work.

"What our main goal over the past year was to educate Earvin the best we could," explained

ROLLIE NABS ANOTHER TOP RECRUIT

Jermaine Smith, a 6'1" guard from Oak Hill Academy, has announced that he will sign a letter-of-intent to play basketball for UNLV.

Smith averaged 15 points a

Dr. Michael Mellman. "We will watch Earvin throughout this whole season. The ultimate decision was his."

Elated with the decision, Head Coach Pfund also feels that the Lakers are a contending team. "I prepared the whole summer without Earvin playing. Now I'll just go back to the office and put those plays in the files."

Johnson did not say if this would be a one-year comeback or if he planned on staying a few years. "I don't want a good-bye tour. When I go out I just want to go out. I've already gone through that with Kareem and it takes too much away from the mental part of the game. I just want to go off into the sunset."

FOOTBALL SKILLS WORKSHOP

The City of L.V. Johnson Community, 7701 Ducharme Avenue, sponsors a football skills

workshop, Oct. 13-16. The seminar, designed for ages 8-12, takes place 4-5 p.m., daily. Registration takes place Oct. 6-9 at a cost of $10. Call 229-6175.

Dan Marino will lead his high-powered offense against Buffalo's stingy defense, which is yielding a mere eleven points per game. The Dolphins are averaging 24 ppg, which doesn't even come close to the 38 ppg. avg. that Buffalo is boasting.

With names like Jim Kelly, Thurman Thomas, Andre Reed and James Lofton, the Bills' offense is extremely dangerous for any defensive unit.

The main key to this game will be in the minds of two great coaches - Marv Levy and Don Shula.

Coach Levy can basically follow the same game plan that has been working to perfection the past month. He will have to realize who his counterpart is though. Coach Shula has been around long enough to know what he'll be facing on Sunday afternoon. Shula's Dolphins can lose this game, like everyone thinks they will, and they'll just go down as another Buffalo victim, or they can shock all by shutting Buffalo down with a master Shula plan. If any coach can do it, you can count on Don Shula.

One thing is certain for sure though; Tuesday morning, two teams will stand tall and remain undefeated. Those same two teams may also be your sneak preview of this season's Super Bowl participants. Buffalo v.s. Philadelphia ???
