"3RD ANNUAL HEROES & LEGENDS AWARDS A HUGE SUCCESS..."

The Third Annual Heroes and Legend Awards that took place at the famous landmark Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel, Sunday evening September 27th, is now another page in the history of Hollywood happenings. This years event was also the best award ceremony to date in the short history of the "Annual Heroes and Legends Awards." The highlight of the evenings festivities and the presenting of HAL Awards, was the on stage reunion of Smokey Robinson and the original Miracles after all these many years to receive the evenings highest honor, the Heros and Legends Pacesetter Award.

This years program also introduced the new theme song for the annual HAL Awards. The awards song was written by Janie Bradford and Richard Wylie, and appropriately titled,

"Heros and Legends." The words of this beautiful theme song goes like this...

Heroes and Legends in their own time are rare and few

Heroes and Legends one of a kind I found in you

Heros and Legends I found in you

You gave my life new meaning

When you taught my heart to soar

You encouraged me to fly higher

Than I've ever flown before

Fairy tales of my childhood

Are now triumphs of reality

In the winner's circle of your love

I can taste sweet victory

Heroes in their own time are rare and few

Heroes and Legends one of a kind I found in you

Heroes and Legends I found in you

You helped me to go the distance

To be the best that I can be

I was chained up in doubt

When your love set me free

I lost faith in my climb

But you would not let me stop

Now I can touch the finish line

Because your love inspired me to the top

(repeat Choirs til fade)

MISSION OF 'BOYZ II MEN' IS TO SPREAD LOVE AND UNDERSTANDING

"We may not be able to change the world, but if we can join people together during a show, it may make a difference in somebody's life," said Shawn Stockman of the acapella quartet, Boyz II Men, which has become a hot group despite the fact that they are not wild, angry or loud. "Our name," Stockman explained in an interview, "expresses what we are trying to do - bridge the gap between young and old, black and white, all colors, all sizes, all people."

Wanya Morris, another member of the group added, "The message we're trying to get across to people is that they should spread love."

"Our values come from our families," said Nate Morris, who is not related to Wanya. "We were brought up to believe that God put you in a position to help other people. Music is a way of giving back."
