of Americas. He has been a member of the Presidium and World Peace Council since 1963. An active advocate for civil rights, Dr. Goodlett has consulted with Presidents Eisenhower, Kennedy, Johnson, Nixon, Ford and Carter on issues relating the role of minority newspapers in American life.

He states, "I am a perennial optimist. This is based on the fact that I am a psychologist and a physician and all of my work is aimed at preserving life." Goodlett received his medical degree from Meharry College of Medicine and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of California, Berkeley.

The tribute for Dr. Carlton will take place October 15th at 6:30 p.m. on The Blue and Gold Vessel during the Community Awards Evening Cruise Sponsored by Miller Brewing Company and Artesa Media.

ART GALLERY

its regular guest artists exhibits as well as providing an intimate gallery setting to showcase local artists.

"We would like to bring the artist and the community together by giving the viewer a glimpse into how and where the artist works by exploring the studio environment. Workshops and dialogue with the artist will be an important aspect of the whole art experience at Left of Center. Our goals for the gallery include a strong educational component and a commitment to promoting the creative talents of young people.

Karen Lyles, a well known Southern California artist and art curator has been invited to install the show at the Left of Center gallery. She is a graduate of the prestigious San Francisco School of the Arts and has been a curator for many group shows in the west.

We invited the public to join in our celebration of "All That Jazz," a tribute to the sounds of New Orleans, Sunday, October 18, from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Come join us in welcoming artist William Pajaud and Left of Center Art Gallery to the arts community. Left of Center is located at 2207 W. Gowan in North Las Vegas.
