"HOLLYWOOD HOTLINE..."

Denny Pickens, the nephew of the late legendary Bill Pickens, is coming to Tinseltown with his Annual Frontier 101 Rodeo. His three day event will begin February 5th and continue through February 7th, at the Los Angeles Equestrian Center. Denny's also looking for a number of African American television and film stars to saddle up and ride with him in the Grand Parade opening day, February 5th. Opening day at the upcoming Frontier 101 Rodeo will also be "Children's Day," with special events for youngsters to enter, plus seeing African American cowboys ridin', ropin', and wrestlin' steers. As Denny puts it, "it sure would be nice to have a bunch of popular television and film folks mixin' and minglin' with the kids at the rodeo." Interested parties can call yours truly or Denny Pickens for details and information. Denny Pickens number is (213) 733-1230, and yours truly can be reached at (818) 718-6730.

Aside from the good news that Magic is back with the Lakers, we've also been informed, the previously announced "Save L.A. Celebrity Basketball Game" that was to be scheduled to take place at the Sports Arena, and was cancelled at the last minute a month ago, is on again!! The new date for the game is Sunday, February 7th, and the site for this fund raising basketball match-up will be the Cal-State L.A. gym, located at 5151 State University Drive.

Millie Jackson is just a signature away from taking the hilarious musical stage play "Young Man, Older Woman," into Nu Yawk's famous Apollo Theatre for a week's run beginning January 12th, 1993. This upcoming Apollo playdate for the fabulous Ms. Millie "J", plus comedian Reynaldo Rey, Kiesha Jackson, Douglas Knyght, Kenny "Chocolate Thunder" Montague and the rest of the production cast, crew and musicians, will also serve as the 'kick-off' run for Millie's '93 tour of "Young Man, Older Women."

As of this press time the promoter that was trying to bring Betty Wright to town, still didn't have a firm hold on either of the two nite clubs in the 'hood' that would have been ideal for the 'clean up woman's' Tinseltown playdate. Which means, there will be no Betty Wright concert in Tinseltown in November as previously announced...and that's Hollywood this time!!

Until the next time, Lanier.
