"COMMENTS AND CONVERSATIONS..."

The Pre Super Bowl Celebrity/Amateur Golf Tournament taking place Wednesday, January 27th, on both courses of Brookside Golf Course, and benefiting new Revelation Outreach Community Education and Physical Training Center of Pasadena, is the headline item of this week's comments and conversations.

This fund raising tournament that's being played on Brookside Golf Course which is in the shadow of the Rose Bowl where Super Bowl XXVII will take place several days later is shaping up to be the 'big one' for southern area golfers and out-of-town swingers. There is also a grand rush to get registered early, especially since Lester Jones, President of Pasadena Lincoln Mercury agreed to sponsor the event, and has donated two new cars from his dealership as prizes for the "hole-in-one" winner on either course during tournament play. Another motivating bit of news, is the fact that USAir has also come on board as a company supporter to help make this tournament a huge success. Thanks to Shirley A. Henderson, CTC Manager of their Special Markets Development Department, the Airlines Company has provided some travel anywhere they fly round trip tickets to be raffled off to assist the fund raising concerns of this charity.

A number of local businesses have also gotten involved to help this event reach its' financial goals through this creative resource development project. Ed Lara's Westside Distributors, Team Pasadena Chevrolet, Andy's Mobile Tune-up Center, Sir Speedy Copy Center, Bright Faces Child Development Center, A&G Printing, Lincoln Avenue Baptist Church and Little Ones Quality Child Care are just a few.

The Tournament Committee comprised of The Honorable Rick Cole, Mayor of the City of Pasadena, Pasadena Police Chief, Jerry Oliver, Supervisor Michael C. Antonovich, Congressman Carlos J. Moorhead, Assemblyman Newton R.
