The Las Vegas Marian Conference will be held November 27-29 Thanksgiving weekend at the Las Vegas Convention Center.

The conference will feature Ugo Festa, an Italian man who, according to the Medjugorje Information Center, was recently and miraculously healed from an incurable disease through the intercession of the Virgin Mary through the divine mercy of her son Jesus. Also featured will be the Medjugorje visionary Ivan Dragicevic, who currently still receives apparitions from the Virgin Mary, according to the Medjugorje Information Center, and other international spokespersons who will share their extraordinary experiences.

Organizers say the conference is open to all people of all religions. Registration is $25 for adults and $10 children.

For more information contact the Medjugorje Information Center at (702) 433-7171.
