TODAY'S CHILD

JOSHUA

Joshua, born June 2, 1987, is a five year old African-American boy. He is very attractive with black hair and big brown eyes. Joshua came into the system as a result of neglect and parental drug abuse.

Joshua gets along well with other children and loves animals. He is helpful to the foster parent and relates well with other adults. He has mild, non-degenerative Cerebral Palsy affecting his lower extremities. However, it is not noticeable and he rides his tricycle, plays on a swing and runs. Physical therapy by the foster parent in his home has helped a great deal. He has chronic digestive system problems since birth due to esophageal reflex and problems with diarrhea. He has undergone surgery for these problems and cannot have anything with a casing on it.

Joshua has developed in all areas within normal limits. He talks a lot and loves to play games and color.

Joshua needs a two-parent African-American home where he will receive lots of attention and especially love.
