

To start the year off, Virginia Governor Douglas Wilder withdrew from the Democratic presidential race on Wednesday, January 8.

With over 150 floats and thousands of spectators along the two mile parade route, the Martin Luther King Jr. Committee hosted its largest parade ever. Photo by Savoy/LVS-Voice

The Dance Theatre of Harlem, which in only 24 years has become one of the worlds outstanding classical ballet companies, traveled to UNLV's Artemus Ham Hall for two performances, February 3rd and 4th.

Miss Nevada, Alesia Prentiss, was named "Miss Congeniality" at the Miss USA Pageant in February.

Mike Tyson was found guilty on all charges in the rape case of a Miss Black America Pageant contestant in Indianapolis.

The Pastors Conference of Southern Nevada and the West Las Vegas Ministerial Alliance requested a grand jury investigation into City Councilman Bob Nolan's allegations he gave money to Black ministers in exchange for their support during his campaign.

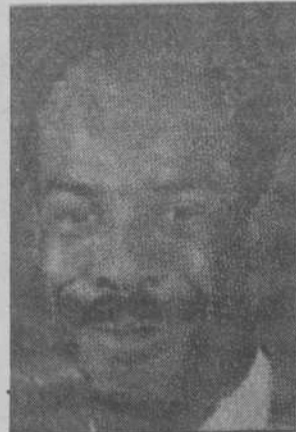

Photo by Savoy/LVS-Voice.

Year In

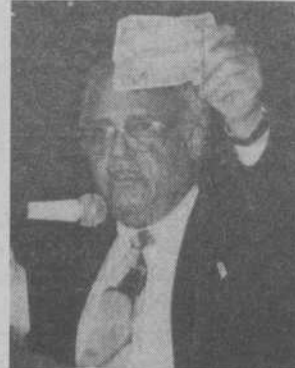

In April, author/Egyptologist, Dr. ben-Jochannon addressed a more than captive audience during a lecture at New Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church.

Photo by Savoy/LVS-Voice

Though the Justice Department decided not to prosecute the officers involved in the death of casino floorman Charles Bush, one settlement was reached on behalf of his youngest child. Two other settlements are still pending.

Benjamin Hooks, Executive Director of the NAACP, announced his retirement, effective at the end of his contract year, April 1993. In May, Hooks came to the aid of the local NAACP chapter at a fundraiser at the Moulin Rouge after the April unrest.

Photo by Savoy/LVS-Voice

Jerry Tarkanian received a well deserved farewell ceremony after his retirement, however, a week later, Rebel players discovered there would be no "March Madness" as they were blocked in District Court from competing for the National Championship. Photo by Savoy/LVS-Voice

Tennis great Arthur Ashe emotionally announced he has AIDS.

Community activist Leonard Mason died of cancer at 50.

In May, Neely Fuller (R) and Charles Jonshon (L) were the key speakers during the third annual African-American Summit.

Photo by Savoy

A petition drive to have the issue of a Civilian Control Board to oversee the Metropolitan Police Department, placed on the November ballot was slowed after Dr. James Tate of the National Alliance Against Racist and Political Repression was arrested at DMV while collecting signatures.

Photo by Savoy/LVS-Voice