

ELDORADO TAKES SOLE POSSESSION OF FIRST PLACE IN SUNRISE DIVISION

By Bill Lee

In a clash with their Sunrise Division foe Chaparral Cowboys, host Eldorado managed to escape the sloppily played contest with a 67-57 victory.

Senior forward Marcus Wade tossed in 18 points while hauling down 11 rebounds, helping the Sundevils raise their record to 6-0 in the conference. Chaparral fell to 5-1.

Eldorado was off and running from the opening tip and never trailed, looking like a first-place squad, while opening up a 16-point advantage over the Cowboys at the end of the first quarter.

The second quarter looked completely opposite as the Cowboys dug in their spurs and outscored the 'Devils 19-4 to close within one point with a little over a minute left in the half. Clutch shooting and tenacious defense kept the lead within reach, as the two teams went into the locker room with Eldog leading 33-29.

Eldorado continued to look lost, as turnovers plagued their chance to pull away, while allowing Chaparral to once again pull within a point. The 'Devils were cold from the field and could not seem to shake Chap's press. Unfortunately, Chaparral couldn't capitalize on Eldog's mistakes and they ended up down by six with one period left.

As the fourth period began, the 'Devils regained form and went on a 14-6 tear to open up a 60-46 lead.

Jarmica Reese hit for 18 points, and Dion Washington pulled 8 off the glass in the losing cause.

In other matchups Tuesday: Clark High School pulled off a 71-64 upset of the Gaels at Bishop Gorman. Troy Larkins and Kevin Bell led the Chargers' fourth quarter attack; With six seconds remaining in the contest, Mike McDougal canned two free throws to lift Valley to a 58-57 victory over Basic; In another close win, Cheyenne toppled Western 96-93, as Prep All-American Chancellor Davis hit two free throws with five seconds left in the game. Cheyenne raised their record to 6-0 in league play, while capturing their 20th victory of the season; The Rancho Rams had a fairly easy time with Vo-Tech, topping the Roadrunners 74-35; Entering the contest with an average of 19.6 points per game, Las Vegas High star Kenyatta Clyde was limited to two points, as Cimarron stymied the Wildcats 69-43.

SBN SPORTS NETWORK HONORS 100TH YEAR OF BLACK COLLEGE FOOTBALL

The most significant event in black college football history will occur February 19-21 in Baltimore, Maryland when the SBN Sports Network hosts its Black College All-American Celebration.

The Black College Football 100th year All-Time Team was selected by a national panel of media, coaches and others who have followed black college football over the years.

In addition, the Black College All-American Celebration will introduce the 1992 Black College All-American Football team, the offensive player and defensive players of the year, the 1992 coach of the year as well as the National Championship team.

The weekend extravaganza will be highlighted by a Friday night reception honoring the 100th year All-Time Team and the Awards Banquet Saturday evening.

SBN Sports Network (SBN) also announced its 1992 Black College All-American team on January 22 as well its Black College national Champions.

The 1992-93 team is headed by Alcorn State sophomore quarterback, Steve McNair who was named SBN offensive player of the year for the second consecutive year, while leading his team to the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) championship. SBN defensive player of the year is Michael Strahan of Texas Southern University.

Joe Taylor of Hampton University, was named SBN Coach of the Year as he took over a team that was 2-9 in 1991. However, in 1992 his team finished 9-2-1 and champions of the Central Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association (CIAA).

Grambling State University was named SBN Black College National Champions as legendary head coach Eddie Robinson led the Tigers to a 10-2 record with a 45-15 win over Florida A&M in the Heritage Bowl.

The first black college football game was played on December 27, 1892 between Biddle, now known as Johnson C. Smith and Livingston.

SBN Sports Network is a division of American Urban Radio Networks, the nation's largest and only black owned network radio company.

UNLV

Aggies.

Although Rider, Boney and Gray have been the noise makers for UNLV, their supporting cast isn't to shabby.

Junior guard Ken Gibson leads the nation in 3-point field goal percentage at .567 (30-for-53), and junior guard Dedan Thomas is among the nation's top 4 leaders in assists with 8.8 assists per game.

UNLV concludes their road trip February 4 when they face Pacific. They will then return home for a clash with Santa Barbara on February 6, and then a rematch with Long Beach St. on Monday, February 8, as part of ESPN's Big Monday coverage, at 9:00 p.m.
