CHILDREN GROW BETTER IN HOMES ... ADOPTION IS THE ANSWER

The Division of Child and Family Services is looking for special needs adoptive homes. There are approximately eighty (80) children waiting to be adopted. These children range in age from infancy to seventeen, are of all ethnic groups, older children, children who face mental, physical or emotional challenges and disabilities, and sibling groups who need to be placed together.

Special needs training is provided to applicants and supportive services are available. If you are interested in finding out more about these children who wait and the adoption process, contact Ann Coleman at 486-5195.

VOLUNTEER COUNSELORS NEEDED

Wanted: Volunteer Counselors needed to make a difference in a young person's life!

Work one-to-one with low-income youth 16-24 returning to the Clark County area after Job Corps training. If you have a few hours a month to help youth with advice and referrals, call Kathy Moore at 1-800-521-5227 from 9:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

There's help for Las Vegans who want to start their own businesses. Learn about licenses, permits, proprietorships, corporations, cash flow and many more requirements. Men and women of the Service Corps Of Retired Executives (SCORE) conducts workshops every two weeks at the Showboat Hotel. Call SCORE at 388-6104 or 388-6611 today for information.

Friendship Corner is in need of donations for the homeless during these cold winter months. We depend upon the generosity of the people of Las Vegas for our survival. We need donations of money, laundry, soap, personal hygiene products, and warm clothing. We are the only facility offering a safe place for the homeless to store their gear, as well as get mail and telephone messages. If you would like to do something for the homeless of our city, please contact us at 387-5595, or send donations directly to the Homeless Advocacy Project, P.O. Box 1365, Las Vegas, NV 89125.

A message especially for single moms — Now, more than ever, we all need someone. If you are a single mom who could use a helping hand to cope, or a woman who has something to offer a single mother in need, call Bridge Counseling Associates at 474-6450 and ask about MOMS. That's MOMS — a free community service program for single moms.
