cause of the color of his skin. Body parts taken home as souvenirs.

If Euro-Christian history was as old as Africa's there would be no world.

Not only would you have accomplished endangering wildlife and nature, you would have figured out how to kill dirt by now.

And to think any cultural group impacted by the brutality of your inhumanity would want to give up their identity and assimilate into your cultural society is suicidal, insane and sick.

Vegas from Idaho in 1923 with their four children. The older boys were Ray and Roy Christenson from Lucretia's first marriage. When the Stevens' arrived there were about 60 black residents and Lucretia immediately began keeping a detailed diary of the daily lives of these people. The names of all are listed as well as events, such as birth and death records. Her diary, among other sources, shows that the majority of blacks in Las Vegas earned their living as workmen or porters for the railroad or janitors and maids, but many owned property and ran successful businesses.

You might dismiss me as an African that hates white people but I don't find you worthy of such respect.

The one component you have not been able to kill is the spirit of life among non-white people. We will live in spite of you. Get a death French, it's the only life you know.

Won't forget won't forgive.

DEAR EDITOR:

Metro, in their great paranoia, is gearing up for the results of the Rodney King trial. Rumor has it they have purchased special riot gear, steel helmets, and stepped up training.

I'm surprised they haven't obtained low yield nuclear warheads and cluster bombs. Why not, it's just more toys for an obviously incompetent, leaderless police force, after all, it's only taxpayer money.

In 1991, when we had our little mini-riot, the entire situation was mishandled by Metro leading to senseless loss of life and property.

The police wandered around like a flock of lost ducks wondering what to do and who to do it to.

It reminded me of a Keystone Kop movie; Sheriff Moran was nowhere to be seen but what else is new?

All one has to do is look at the record of police homicides in Las Vegas to understand Metro's mentality. Shoot first, ask questions later, that is their mode of operation. If Metro would treat Blacks with the respect and understanding they deserve, there would be no need for riot gear. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, is that so hard to comprehend?

Sincerely,
Larry Kepler

Lucretia's son, Ray Christenson, known as "Cowboy" became a well known wrangler and rider. He worked for various ranches in Idaho and Nevada and rode for the famous trail boss Uncle Henry, also known as "Black Henry," one of the most renowned cowboys in the state of Nevada. Ray later ran his own stable and often rode in the Helldorado parades and supplied many of the horses and buggies that others rode.

Another son, Buster Stevens, went to work at the age of 15 for the railroad and retired after 50 years work at age 65. Lucretia's youngest daughter, Juanita, was one of the first blacks to be educated from kindergarten through high school in Las Vegas schools. She later married Larry Barr who was one of the first black City employees.

Nineteen twenty-five saw the election of John Fred Hesse as mayor. He promised the town's minorities that the Klu Klux Klan would never again march through Las Vegas. True to his word, the Klan never again burned a cross as they had previously done on the ground that now is the location of the Reed Whipple Cultural Center.

The local branch of the NAACP was organized in 1926 with A.B. Mitchell as president and Henry Wilson, another early pioneer, as secretary.

The 1928 announcement that work was to begin on the Dam project brought thousands of workers from across the country to town long before there were any jobs available.

The influx of the unemployed brought new problems to the community because there were no jobs or housing available. Many local residents pitched in to help out the newcomer and their children.
