LETTERS

B of a crime. Citizen B is arrested by the police, taken to prison and executed. The media supports the execution by stating that Citizen B was guilty because he's dead!

That's the serious degree of unintelligent injustice the NAACP and Rev. Scott is protesting, and the school officials and metro is upholding.

(2) It is alleged that Metro and the Principal are adults, and procedures or not, are obligated to act responsibly. Yet Stanley saved the day by not having a weapon. If he had had a gun, moved for it, besides him dying, how many of his peers would have been hit or maybe killed by friendly fire. Cops are afraid of an African American, at any age, and in there nervous scabble to get him, ended up shooting up the classroom.

A word to Channel 13's Letter to the Editor Dept. It's peculiar that you only read letters that supports your self righteous views. Also, the African-American community will decide when Rev. Scott is out of control and the NAACP is acting irresponsible. Your days as massus is up. You don't pick, define, or tell us who our leaders are. If you are going to be racist, at least be intelligent about it, if that's compatible!

The war continues.
