The Las Vegas Association of Black Journalists (LVABJ) is sponsoring a contest to select the work of a local African American artist to appear on the cover of the official magazine and print collaterals for the 1993 Western Regional Conference of the National Association of Black Journalist (NABJ), which will convene in Las Vegas at Bally's Casino Resort the weekend of April 23rd.

Nationally renowned sports figures, celebrities, journalists, business and civic leaders, and elected officials will be in attendance. The event is open to the general public.

African American artists are requested to submit an 8"x10" black and white photograph of entries consistent with the conference theme for consideration by the LVABJ selection committee.
