

N.L.V. CITY COUNCILMAN APPOINTED

WILLIAM ROBINSON

North Las Vegas City Councilman William Robinson has been reappointed by the National League of Cities' Community and Economic Development (CED) Committee to the CED Steering Committee for 1993.

"President Clinton is looking to this committee, as well as others, to provide input to the Administration in terms of the need of the cities in America," said Robinson. "Our steering committee has a wonderful opportunity to help shape the policies that will impact North Las Vegas and other communities in the U.S. in the future."

The Community and Economic Development Committee is responsible for national urban policy in local economic development, community development and block grant programs, housing and neighborhood development, federal building, land use, recreation and parks, and historic preservation.

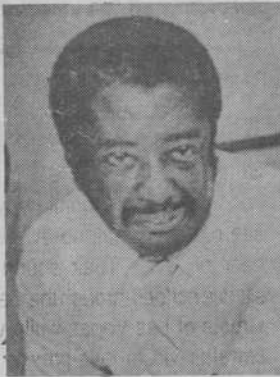

Councilman Robinson attended steering and policy committee events in Washington, D.C. during the National League of City's annual Congressional City Conference on March 6 and 7, 1993. Committee members work with the chairperson in developing league policy recommendations and reaction to Congressional and Administration initiatives.

BANK OF AMERICA (Continued from Page 1)

The new branch opened with many special offers for its new customers including a free silver dollars, special loan rates for homes and cars, free checks, and a $10 donation to the Martin Luther King Jr. Scholarship fund for each new account opened at the branch.

The Martin Luther King Committee donated a portrait of King to be displayed in the lobby of the bank.

REID TAPS HERBERT BROWN FOR MARSHALL POST

HERBERT L. BROWN

WASHINGTON — U.S. Senator Harry Reid recently nominated a 21-year veteran of the North Las Vegas Police Department for the post of United States marshal in Nevada.

Herbert L. Brown, 51, served as Assistant Chief of Police for the City of North Las Vegas since last year. He recently retired from that position. From 1987 to 1992, Brown was Director of Community Relations/Crime Prevention Bureau of the City of North Las Vegas Police Department.

From 1971 to 1987, Brown worked for the North Las Vegas Police Department in many capacities including Field Training Officer, Juvenile Detail Investigator, Covert Surveillance Detail, Traffic Accident Investigator, and Patrol Officer.

Brown has been trained in police work by the Federal Bureau of Investigations, U.S. Department of Justice, Drug Enforcement Administration, and the Nevada Peace Officers Standards and Training in Carson City. He is also a member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police and the International Union for Police Associations.

Reid said Brown has the experience and character needed for the Marshall's job, "Herbert Brown has worked in every level of law enforcement," Reid said. "He has earned the respect and appreciation of his colleagues and the community. Herbert Brown will be an outstanding U.S. Marshall."

Reid submitted Brown's name to the Administration. Upon Senate approval, President Clinton will appoint Brown to the Marshall's post.
