The True Love Missionary Baptist Church was very pleased with the support during our black history program, it was wonderful! We'll be doing it again next year.

The pastor's aide and the mission department presented the founder and pastor with a beautiful white robe, accented with bold red crosses. The robe was a delayed gift honoring eighteen years of loyal and faithful service. A dedication service was performed and the pastor was thankful for the thoughtfulness of these auxiliaries.

We were also honored with the presence of senator Byran, his wife and a co-worker in our morning service.

Coming Sunday, March 21, 1993, at 4:00 p.m. will be the annual choir day. More details in our future church news.

A friendly church, with eternal Love; teaching the word of God!
