The True Love Missionary Baptist Church has great reason to be proud, we're part of the history at Nellis Air Force. April 9, 1993 the street in front of the building where Bro. Robert McGough worked was named in his honor. His wife Eva McGough, president of the usher board, her family, her pastor Rev. I.W. Wilson, our guest minister Rev. J.A. Reed Jr. and many of her personal friends were in attendance for this great event. The congregation salutes Mrs. McGough for the honor and pride her late husband had given the entire community.

Easter services were very beautiful and uplifting. The BTU (Baptist Training Union) conducted an entertaining play and of course the traditional speakers. We'll continue to grow and get better. Thanks for all of your support.
