LOCAL PRODUCTION COMPANY ANNOUNCES LAS VEGAS' FIRST CHRISTIAN/GOSPEL TALENT SHOW

Two Plus Two Productions will hold its Christian & Gospel talent night on Saturday, May 22, 1993 at the Huntridge Theater for the Performing Arts. The show is a result of the organization's attempts to secure an undiscovered market of local secular performers. Two Plus Two Productions is a corporation formed by a local group of businessmen who want to provide a unique brand of family entertainment. The members say that the event will offer an opportunity for the city's best amateur acts to be featured in a full showcase environment.

Many of the acts perform locally in their respective churches, but have not had an opportunity to preview their talents before a neutral audience. By performing before audiences such as these, two plus two says it provides development opportunities for these acts. "By performing before an audience which begins on a neutral base," says Two Plus Two President, Eric Jordan, Sr., "an act will be forced to give it's all to win the audience over." Prizes for the event include a $150.00 grand prize with $100.00 and $50.00 dollars for respective (See Christian/Gospel Talent Show, Page 21)
