SAY YES TO SENIORS

According to Mr. Tom Miller, Executive Director of Catholic Community Services of Nevada, "Title V," The Senior Employment Program, continues to provide full and part time employment opportunities for individuals 55 years and older, and who have a low income. For example, during the most recent calendar year, CCSN was able to help place some 588 Seniors in either full or part time employment."

Ms. Valerie Cabella, Director of the Senior Employment Program for CCSN said: "Those of us involved in assisting Seniors find either full or part time employment are deeply appreciative of the Las Vegas business community for their efforts in assisting in the placement of Seniors who are in need of employment. At the present time, hundreds of local businesses have offered employment opportunities to Seniors needing to supplement their income."

"Just over a year ago, a Senior wishing to add to her income and provide community service, took advantage of the Senior Employment Training Program offered here at CCSN. During the course of her training, she became interested in the placement of Seniors in the employment field, learned quickly the training and networking skills required, applied herself and today is the Assistant Director of Senior Employment," commented Miller.

"Helping a person regain their self respect, develop greater self confidence, and need for added income were the reasons I chose to become involved in the Senior Employment Program," commented Ms. Jackie Massaro. "After hearing about the Title V Program at CCSN, I decided to call and schedule an appointment. This was one of the most difficult things I have ever done. I lacked self confidence, I lacked income." (See YES to Seniors, Page 21)
