science, chief Young feels confident he is prepared for the new assignment.

"Chief Young is a solid officer who brings leadership and experience to the position of Fire Marshal," said Fire Chief Clell West. City Manager Bill Noonan added, "Service to area residents has always been the number one priority of the City's Fire Department, and I'm certain Chief Young will continue that tradition as the new Fire Marshal."

Young, a native of Memphis, Tennessee, was a Sergeant in the U.S. Air Force. He has also attended the University of Arkansas, as well as Clark County Community College, where he received degrees in fire science and fire service management.

The United Firefighters of Southern Nevada, formerly the Professional Black Firefighters of Las Vegas, are proud to say that Chief Young is one of its founding members.

We look to the future with great anticipation of Chief young being an advocate for the African-American members of the Las Vegas Fire Department as he serves at the senior staff level.

Never pay rent again.

Why rent when you can own? Imagine that. No more rent checks. No more putting hard earned cash in someone else's pocket. What's your alternative? Buy a HUD Home.

Often for as little as your "first-and-last-month's-rent," you could have the down payment for a HUD Home. Just add normal closing costs and fees, and you're ready to move into your own home.

Ask a real estate professional to tell you more about HUD Homes, and show you HUD listings. For a free brochure filled with helpful advice on choosing, buying, and enjoying a home, call 1-800-767-4HUD.
