ment and Development of values.

Project READ is a reading program designed for interactive reading between parents and children to model reading for enjoyment and understanding. Emphasis is placed on literature written for and by African-Americans with books being chosen to help parents and children reflect and dialogue on values that are compatible with and necessary for the community.

The children and their parents will be given books to read during the week and then once a week all parties will gather at the social hall of the church to discuss the books and interact with community people who will discuss the importance and fun of reading.

The Program is funded by the Nevada Humanities Committee. The Program will meet each Thursday evening from 6 to 8 p.m. starting June 24, 1993 through July 29, 1993. Anyone interested in participating should call 648-6606.

THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH APPOINTS NEW SUPERINTENDENT

The Rev. Dr. Nathan Holt was appointed Superintendent of the North Office of the Desert Southwest Conference of the United Methodist Church by Bishop Elias Galvan of the Phoenix episcopacy, to be effective July 1, 1993.

Dr. Holt succeeds Rev. Fred Trevino, who has been appointed to the Paradise Valley UMC in Paradise Valley, Arizona as Senior Pastor.

The North District, which Dr. Holt will be serving, encompasses portions of three states: Northern Arizona, Southern Nevada, and the river cities of eastern California, and includes 26 churches, two campus ministries, and a number of social ministry agencies. The North District Office is located in Las Vegas, Nevada, in the First United Methodist building at 3rd and Bridger.

Dr. Holt has lived within the bounds of the Desert Southwest Conference since 1949. He graduated from Arizona State University in 1951 with a B.S. degree, followed by a J.D. degree from the University of Arizona in 1954. He was in private and corporate law practices for 20 years before he entered Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Kentucky in 1975.

Since 1978, he has been serving churches in Arizona, including two located in the Northern District. He and his wife, Alita, a talented singer, are looking forward to the challenge and opportunities for ministry as they serve this far-flung area of United Methodist churches.
