

CBA DRAFT INCLUDES GRAY AND BONEY

The Continental Basketball Association held its annual draft Tuesday evening at the Imperial Palace Hotel and Casino, and fortunately for a couple of former 'Rebels, their names were finally called.

Dexter Boney and Evric Gray were both nabbed Tuesday by members of the CBA as former coach and present head coach at UNLV, Jerry Tarkanian and Rollie Massimino, looked on.

Although he was drafted in the fifth-round, 72nd overall, by Fargo-Moorhead, Gray announced that he will not be playing in the CBA, but actually will be heading Italy, this Friday.

Gray has agreed to sign a one-year deal with Italian Division I-A team Phonola Caserta, based near Naples. Gray played in summer mini-camps for Seattle and Cleveland, but will decline to show for both clubs' veterans camp in the fall.

Terms were not discussed, but Gray is expected to receive a six-figure contract.

Boney was taken in the third round, 38th overall, by Grand Rapids, and looks as if he'll be staying in the United States for a stint in the CBA. Boney, who is currently residing in Fresno, California, was unavailable for comment.

Stacey Poole, out of Florida, was the first player drafted overall by the Hartford Hellcats. The league's newest member, the Hellcats, will have to wait and see what happens when Poole

"If I don't make the team, I'll have something to fall back on with Hartford," said Poole.

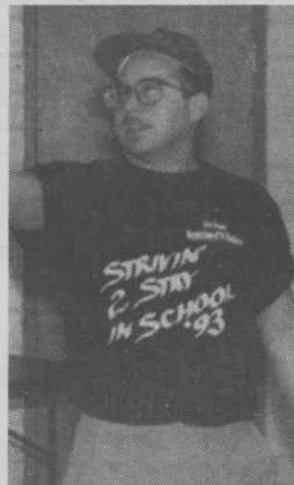

All three players, Boney, Gray and Poole, were passed over in the NBA Draft this past June. Both former Rebels had figured to be late second-round picks.
