

This past weekend was very ENTERTAINING for me. I was recently selected by the GREATER CHAMBER OF LAS VEGAS to serve in their 1993/1994 LEADERSHIP LAS VEGAS CLASS. I understand that there was thousands who applied for the LEADERSHIP CLASS and only 40 people were selected. I was one of the selected 40 CLAP! CLAP! Yes, it was very informative and exciting to meet other people in the Las Vegas area who are considered future leaders. All nationalities were in attendance and it gave me the opportunity to REALLY make friends and contacts with another sector of Las Vegas. I learned so many things about being a leader (IF YOU WANT TO CALL ME THAT), I guess I look at myself more as a person concerned about the well being of others, and how we ALL can make Las Vegas a better place to live. Two snaps go out to the Las Vegas Chamber for creating such a worth while program that encourages career advancement. SO, I HOPE THAT YOU TOO WILL SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION NEXT YEAR FOR LEADERSHIP LAS VEGAS.

"THE PROGRAM"

Eastern State University's football program attracts the finest players in the country, and breeds a savage team of rugged and fiercely motivated warriors. Pushed to the max to perform to inhuman ends, these ferocious athletes are an elite brotherhood of knights who collide on and off the field — a violent pack of animals testing their power and abilities at every turn and fighting the demands and pressures of winning at all costs.

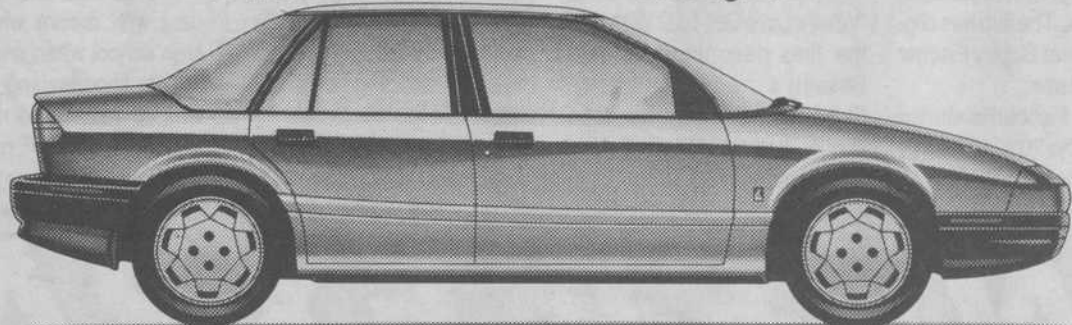

However, beyond the thrill of victory and agony of defeat lies (See The Program, Page 21)

Autumn (Berry, center) introduces Darnell (Epps, right) to her boyfriend, starting tailback Ray Griffen (J. Leon Pridgen II, left). James Caan, Craig Sheffer and Kristy Swanson also star. A Touchstone Pictures and The Samuel Goldwyn Company presentation, "The Program" is directed by David S. Ward from a screenplay written by Ward and Aaron Latham.
