A MAN CALLED DAVION PLAYS REED WHIPPLE MAIN THEATER

The Las Vegas Black Gospel Theater presents "A Man Called Davion", a play with dancing, gospel music and laughter, at Reed Whipple Cultural Arts Center's Main Theater, 821 Las Vegas Blvd. North. Thursday, September 16 - Saturday, September 18, 8:15 P.M., with a Sunday matinee September 19 at 3:15 P.M.

Under the direction of it's playwright, Mary-Etta Sayles Clinton, "A Man Called Davion" is the story of an ex-con who served time for a crime his "Best" friend committed. Determined to never return to prison, he becomes involved with neighborhood youths and falls in love with Bailey who is a Christian.

taken to benefit the Anthony D. Thomas/Phi Beta Sigma Scholarship Fund for local African-American high school seniors.

QUEST FOR THE BEST 93' will showcase some of the communities finest choirs, as Rev. Sam Roberson will once again be the emcee. For any additional information please contact Robert Sheppard or 598-5536 or 399-3222.

WHO: "House of Hotlines C.O.G.I.C." WHAT: "3rd Annual Carnival and Mexican Fiesta" WHERE: 2301 North "H" Street WHEN: Saturday, October 2nd, 1993. TIME: 4:30 P.M. - Until WHY: A Fundraiser. For further assistance please contact Kathy Harris at 799-7320 or 648-4197.

Following his friends advice, he pretends to be a Christian in order to marry her.

His friend has one mission, get information from Davion about his ex-cell mate. Bailey, a divorcee, marries Davion (also known as Sugar Man) against the wishes of her son (who hates Davion), her mother (who keeps up-to-date with family matters) and against Queenie and the "ladies-in-waiting" who know for sure that Davion is not the one for her.

Community actors star in this production. Darrell Scott is cast as Davion and Danielle Traylor is cast as Bailey. Henry "Pops" Regan is musical director.

The Las Vegas Black Gospel Theater is a community family theater in need of your support. The theaters goal is to be one answer to the question: 'Can any good thing come out of the West Las Vegas?'

Come and see what happens after Bailey marries Davion. The play offers a few surprises. Tickets at Zion Methodist Church or call 594-2235. Donation is $10 with a two for one special on all tickets purchased in advance.
